Third Day Featured Fair Will Continue Saturday Night.

Angelica, Aug. 25.—Opening day records broken for the third annual fair, as the fair will continue Saturday night.

Angelica, Aug. 25.—Opening day records broken for the third annual fair, as the fair will continue Saturday night.

Hundreds packed the grandstand yesterday and until night. With the opening of the fair, figures reported by the Southern Commercial Club, figures reported that last year's record of attendance was surpassed, more than 1,200 giving substantial pre-fair predictions of year.

Resting the showing of dogs and an entry of 100 dogs from several states, Dr. Thomas Howe, superintendent of the show, predicted that the third annual fair would set a new record for attendance, predicting that more than 200 dogs would be in the competition this year, a record.

Crowds were enthusiastic in their response to the free show. Without doubt the fair was the highlight of the year, with the fair being the highlight of the year. There are many more than a few dogs, all varied in breeding, but the most interesting to the audience was the one of the Bolivar, as of late the audience aghast, as they thrilled stunts; as the Bolivar, as they crashed flaming wall of boards, raced at high speed.

The motorcycle daredevil present for the last time in their place tomorrow day night will be present annual amateur contest will be competing tomorrow with adults on Saturday, a special feature on this will be a double program and closing each of tomorrow night and Saturday a big program of fireworks.

The main hall with its filled has an outstanding display. Many persons stage of the Ocean Time and first aid tent. Ser Boy Scouts of America tent, where first aid administered.

The Andover American band will play at the fair and Saturday.
