Guess Who

Hats off to a promising member of the Class of 1940. Her winning personality and her leadership have made her a favorite of her class and has also given her the task and honor of presiding over it.

Her standings are good in the majority and she gives part of her time to the Girls' Glee Club. She is seen occasionally with her post-graduate friend. To those who know her, she is noted for her sheeper. her, she is noted for her cheery smile and her friendly hello.

Those of you interested in store managership will want to see the second grade's idea on this subject. Each pupil has brought some toys which are priced and placed on sale. The second lap of the fifth grade arithmetic contest finds the teams shill tied. The two leaders, Janice Walton and William Dougherty, are properly proud.

The second grade had a novel idea last week. The boys and girls brought their favorite toy to school and—here is the surprise—one young man brought a rabbit!
