Book Week was first known as ("Good Book" Week, because it be-(gan a dime for better books, for) placing them in homes to be read, and for making them easily accesslible in public places, fostering books; suitable for boys and girls. It has become a gay crusade, dramatizing happy celebration the joys of owning books, the pleasures of book companionship. It has helped to build a list of new and better editions to promote reading for fun and Book Week is dedicated to children. You and they will make it imaccent on youth in your neighborties thruout the land. Children need books to grow up with, and to grow;

on. If you are a book-seller, you! have an important stake in Book Week. The reading habit developed early in life sticks. Every child taught to care for books and to relish good reading becomes a customer for life. You and they can join hands on this gay holiday -- thereby 'insuring its success thru enthusinstic. moperative effort. Re library conscious! '
