AN EVENT EAGERLY AWAITED BY ANDOVER PEOPLE! - In His Lecture "THE LURE OF THE LABRADOR" at Andover High School Auditorium Tuesday, November 1st

C. HUBER WATSON will give the FIRST Showing of his pictures—both still and movie—which will furnish a vivid portrayal of his life and work on the Labrador Coast last winter and spring. He will show the first motion picture story ever made of the seal fishing industry on the Labrador. Many winter sports and local occupations will furnish interesting contrasts to any seen in this locality. The bleak and barren rocks will "come to life" when birds—thousands of them—arrive at nesting time.

C. H. Watson Shows Pictures of Labrador
Andover Naturalists Interesting and Instructive Program at High Auditorium.

C. H. Watson, assisted by Mrs. Watson, gave a very interesting and instructive illustrated lecture on the Labrador, where Mr. and Mrs. Watson spent last winter's vacation. The photographs of the people and their habits in the country and their habits at the high school auditorium were very interesting.

In his opening remarks Watson told about the general life of the people, especially the fishermen, and their honesty. No doors are out on a rock as in your country. Since the cod fishing, which was the main livelihood of that country, has become so poor, the government has assisted these people, and them with black flour, and other supplies. The idea that people are dishonest, which they get the credit for, is a little service they give to the people as a whole. The people are very friendly to one another, the work might be referred to as simple and the pictures they enter into them and enjoy them immensely. The boats and making camps in the huge snow-covered on the screen.

Among the interesting things shown were those pictures of transportation and the catching of quantities of seals in nets and on the skins. These have to be kept out of reach of the thousands of birds that country to nest. These pictures show great skill and perseverance in the cameraman.

Two vocal numbers were shown, a quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baker and Mrs. J. C. much to the evening's which was sponsored of the Baptist church.

Founder's Day at November 10th
The annual exercise of the founders of Alfred will be held on Nov. 10 in Alumni Hall with Prof. Bretz of the Department of History at Cornell principal speaker.

Among many invited are the Hon. Thomas J. M. cellor of the Regents of the State of New York, Frank P. Graves, congressman, education and president of the State of New York, Dr. Vincent P. Mazzotta of Island University, and Mr. Irwin A. Coe of the division of high in the State Education.

Flip of Coin Cost Man His Life
Albany.—A flip of Kenneth Dickinson, 26 today.

Halted by heavy fog who lived in Hornell, of Canisteo, halted the vacant lot to await a car and they tossed a seat. Dickinson lost the empty trailer.

When the fog lifted Dickinson dead. Corne Hein said exhaust fumes ed the trailer, but not Lee started the motor night to provide heat.

Appreciation
The ladies of the desire to express their C. H. Watson for his "The Labrador," to the ladies for their pleasing the public our appreciation liberal patronage of ment.
