Attracted by a disturbance at his henhouse one day recently, George Thurber of Clarksville Hill discovered a large bear beside it. Mr. Thurber succeeded in frightening away the marauder which he pursued as far as the woods. He estimated the bear weighed as much as 400 pounds. W. B. Herring of that vicinity also reported seeing the unusual visitor.

DUTCH OVENS PANCAKE GRIDDLES FRYING PANS

With winter and the holiday season just ahead we must turn our thoughts to Dutch Ovens for cooking your roasts or fowls—from Pancake Griddles for making delicious pancakes on cold crispy mornings—and Iron Frying Pans for frying of various foods.

Come in—we are ready to satisfy your specific household needs.

MEASURE CORRECTLY

The rule of thumb may do for making out the garden—but there are many times that incorrect measurements may be expensive and sometimes dangerous.

A good Tape Measure 75 feet long is very handy and almost a necessity if you desire correct dimensions. Dial Tapes are accurate, easy, ready and substantial, and a splendid value at $1.00.

DON'T FORGET

That we have a complete stock of Heaters to meet your various needs for this winter. Come in and see our line before you buy. Prices range from $2.50 to $27.50 for Gas Heaters and from $3.95 to $35.00 for wood or coal heaters.

The girls did the usual White Cross work.

Growers Plan for Annual Convention

Potato and vegetable growers of New York state have their annual convention at Rochester, January fifth and sixth, and plans are shaping rapidly for the event.

Educational displays will have a place at the meeting, including a variety of exhibits by the New York State College of Agriculture. A trade show, in addition, will be among the features. The annual banquet is set for Thursday night, January 5th.

The potato show, which is competitive, will feature 32-tuber samples of table potatoes and 100-pound samples of certified seed. The vegetable show, too, will be competitive, and 4-H club contests and exhibits are being arranged.

DISH FOR THIS WEEK

"Friday—Fish!" might sometimes be varied with "Friday—Vegetable Loaf!" says the State College of Home Economics recipe for a main dinner dish includes vegetables and a meat substitute.

Vegetable Loaf
1 egg
1 cup of cooked string beans, cut in small pieces.
1 cup of ground or chooped raw carrot.
1 small onion, minced
1 cup of tomatoes, canned or cooked
½ cup of ground peanuts
1 cup of boiled rice
¼ teaspoon of salt
Pepper

Beat the egg and add to it the other ingredients. Mix them well, and turn into a greased loaf tin. Bake in the oven (about 350 to 400 degrees Fahrenheit) until the mixture is firm. Remove the loaf to a hot platter, garnish with bacon curls and serve.

For a dinner menu, the College suggests grapefruit juice, vegetable loaf, creamed potatoes, new cabbage salad, ice-box rolls and jelly, chocolate cake, milk at least for the children and coffee for the grown-ups, if desired.
