Grade News

New Books and New Worlds

May I call your attention to the most novel and fascinating display this reporter has ever seen! The seventh grade again leads the Andover High School in something new for Book Week. An ancient galley using as its sails red, white and blue covers of books. Congratulations to Miss Baker and the seventh graders. Keep up the good work!

The second, fifth and sixth grades are featuring the greatest of all real, homemade American days by the annual repetition of the story we all love to hear, "Pilgrims and the Plymouth Rock." To illustrate their ideas they are making booklets, posters, silhouettes and friezes of Pilgrims and turkeys.

Leave it to the "up and coming" fourth graders to not only try, but to do, the impossible! Yes, they're possible. They are actually writing in hieroglyphics, the ancient hand of our old Egyptians. Also, this grade, in celebration of books, made hornbooks, like the sons and daughters of pioneers used. Secretly one little girl told the reporter "Wow! No wonder they didn't have as much as we do!" and the class almost agreed with her.

Guess Who

This is a teacher in Andover High Who every day flashes a pretty blue eye,

Her hair is wavy and rather light, She usually smiles on your sight. She doesn't walk far to school each day,

A couple of blocks is the shortest way,

If yet you do not know her name, History teaching brought her fame. Answer to last week's Guess Who—Mary Greenan.

Movie and Radio Guide

"Four Daughters" Here This Week

This week one of the most rare and perfect movies ever put forth by Warner Bros. will be presented at the Andover theatre as a special Thanksgiving treat. Wednesday and Thursday "Four Daughters" will be at our local theatre. Warner Bros. have made other great pictures such as "Robin Hood," "Anthony Adverse" and the "Life of Emilio Zola" but this is entirely different. A simple story of today and of people close to you is presented in an intimate story of four young girls in love.

Action, story and direction blend as if under kindly smiles of the gods, into a natural masterpiece. The three Lane sisters, (Lola, Rosemary and Priscilla) and Gale Page are the four daughters and two new personalities are introduced. Famous from the New York stage comes John Garfield and the other new dashing personality is Jeffrey Lynn, who brings the gay, romantic glamour that wins all hearts. These six stars are also supported by Dick Foran, Claude Rains, May Robson and Frank McHugh.

Friday and Saturday, "The Texans" will be at the theatre. This picture was advertised for the Andover theatre before, but it was impossible to present it at that time.

Sunday and Monday, "Stolen Heaven" a very enjoyable musical crook drama will be presented. Gene Raymond, Olympe Bradna, Lewis Stone, Glenda Farrell and Douglas Dumbrille will empose the cast.

Radio—Phil Baker continues to come on at 7:30 p.m. on Sundays over WA BC and now carries on the traditions with his haunter, Beette, whose name is withheld as he is more interesting than an unsolved mystery. Harry McNaughton and Agnes Moorhead are the other principals of the cast which is supported by Hal Kemp's orchestra and the 7 G's.

No matter how it is done, Lux Radio Theatre has always managed to get outstanding stars, a good script and a thoroughly entertaining show. Cecil B. DeMille is the producer and master of ceremonies of the broadcast. Everyone ought to enjoy this type of program. It also keeps you tuned in on the most current movie productions.

Just the End of Another Day

The quiet, firm hand of the law he had come to know so well these last few years, was now laying on his shoulder. Dennis turned a face that tried to be calm and cool toward the officer. A faint smile tinged his lips and faded. Today, day of all days, Thanksgiving. They could not wait even for a day, one day. His shoulders rose and fell in a shrug.

"We'd better be moving, fellow," the arm of the law said.

Dennis faced the crowd with seeming indifference. Altho his whole frame shook with resentment and anger, nothing broke the passive outline of his cheek.

"Why should they be allowed to stand and stare at me? I was once as good as they. Let them sneer and sniff. They're like vultures, flocking to see fellowmen in trouble. But—" He stalked on.

It was nearing the end now. He could hear the hushedness that fell over the crowd as the last moments drew closer. His breath grew hot and labored; his eyes seldom saw clearly. Then a steady, untroubled voice rang out over the multitude.

Silence—still and nerve-racking—gathered about him. Only the "klump-klump" of his heavy feet could be heard. Dennis halted and raised his head. He would not go on! Let them try and make him! A gasp split the air as his rebellious eyes glanced up. A subdued murmur trickled thru the crowd, growing now more calm, now more excited. Dennis felt a knot of hate swelling larger and larger within him. It rose quickly, flashed to his lips and—

Bill Dennis, king of Hobo Land, remarked placidly to the officer behind him: "Damn it, I don't see why I should watch the turkey raffle too."

NAGGING BACKACHE

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action. Don't Neglect It!

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking, exposure, contagion, which keeps doctors and hospitals crowded. The after-effects are disturbing to the kidneys and oftentimes people suffer without knowing that disordered kidney action may cause the trouble.

After colds, fever and similar ills there is an increase of body impurities the kidneys must filter from the blood. If the kidneys are overtaxed and fail to remove excess acid and other harmful waste, there is poisoning of the whole system.

Symptoms of disturbed kidney function may be nagging backache, persistent headache, dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of strength and energy. Other signs of kidney trouble may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination, frequent urination, "Doan's Backache" is a wonderful help. It is better to take it early than to wait until it is too late. It is a safe, reliable, and approved plan on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. They have been winning new friends for more than forty years. Be sure to get Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.
