Editorial REACH THAT GOAL

This week opens the 1938-39 baskethall season with two games. Altho neither of them are league games, the team is still working toward one goal: that of winning. Thruout the next few weeks the goal in every game will be to win. This goal cannot be achieved by any one member of the squad cc by the squad alone. How can it he? By co operation!

Co operation means working to gother for one putnose.

Andover Outclasses Christmas Operetta

The Andover High School basketball team outclassed Jasper, the last year Steuben county class C champions, Tuesday evening at the Andover gymnasium by a 31 to 11 markin. Using the superior speed and height the Andover team took the lead at the start and were never headed. The score at half time was 13 to 3.

In the third quarter the team began to "click" and piled up a large score to put the game on ice. In the last quarter the second and third teams went in and played the remaining part of the game. Jasper came back and outscored Andover this quarter 7 to 2.
