Canisteo Man Killed by Deer

(Mrs. Charles Terry, Reporter)

A alert at getting some attention has been that of a Canisteo hunter out for game Dec. 1st who was chased by a big buck deer. The man managed to climb a tree, but dropped his gun in the race. The deer, pawing the earth in anger, kept his victim in the branches until a farmer passing by heard the tumult and shot the infuriated animal.

The oldest container of preserved soup in America is said to be a 77-year-old flask of veal broth sealed by Louis Pasteur.

During the 17th century gallant young men delivered growing towns to plants to wives or sweethearts as tokens of love.

THE HI HERALD

is ahead in the spelling contest in the sixth grade. Argene Shimwell is the leader of the other side. Christmas atmosphere is prevalent as one enters all the grade rooms.

Around A. H. S. With C. Coryell

Congratulations, Leo, for making the first basket of the season, and to George J. for the first basket made by a member of the first team.

The high school girls will have to learn that it is necessary to furnish for play day, whether they play or not.

Let's hope the basketball season continues as well as it has begun! Oh, where, or where, did the pickles go last Saturday?

It isn't very nice to have one's books taken away even if it's for fun. It will mean a lot if one has to buy new books.

Delores and I went in the French II class last Friday and had a chance to brush up on French.

The Hi Herald party stimulated interest in newspaper work. Let's keep up that interest.

Dick Clair's picture of the play cast turned out very well.

I've found out that Charlie Spicer can wipe dishes. How dry they are is the next question.

Some of the students at the Hi Herald party didn't seem to like to rub noses in the match box relay.

It would be interesting to know whether basketball or dancing is the favorite recreation in A. H. S.

The girls at play day seem to like ring stick hockey. Inez had a job to teach them, but she managed fine!

The new columns "News in Review" is a very good feature for the Hi Herald. Let's continue it.

So far it's a mystery to me, why and where Elebeth is taken away from the inn. Maybe the second act of the opera will explain the mystery.

Can't there be a bigger crowd at the basketball games?

I can't help but wonder which of the two teams, the American or the National will win the magazine contest. Baseball is a good game.

Mr. Ruggles certainly has a hard time getting his family of seven children ready to go to a Christmas dinner. So many as the children have: Sara, Maud, Cornelius, Peory and Clem. Kitty, Larry and Peter aren't bad names, but those other four! This interesting family will be at school the week of the 16th.

The article about mirages in the December issue of Reader's Digest is excellent. Maybe mirages are what we students see sometimes.

Let us all help make the new student in the Freshman homeroom feel at home immediately.

I hear there's going to be a Dramatic Club party the 14th.

Bud Dolan said that Houghton College was the nearest place to heaven. It has an elevation of 1,400 feet.

There seems to be more boys interested in Fredonia than there are girls!

The English IV class isn't enjoying the "Deserted Village." I wonder why?

Juniors Hold Magazine Contest

Americans Lead With Score Of Eleven

The "All-Star" Series is being held this week by the members of the Junior Class who are selling magazine subscriptions. The class is divided into two fighting teams, the Americans with a score of eleven and the Nationals with a score of ten. The leaders are Betty Greene for the Americans and Veronica Lynch for the Nationals. Jessie Burger was chosen business manager.

Each subscription sold counts one point for the side the person is on. Since this is one of the money-making events for the Juniors, it is hoped that all desiring magazine subscriptions, either for themselves or for Christmas gifts, will permit some Junior to take their order.

Guess Who

One can see emerging from the school bus every morning this person who is a very popular young lady in the promising Freshman Class. One will always find her surrounded by her many friends and too, she always has that pretty, cheerful smile to give to one. The person is short with reddish brown hair, and with fair complexion, with a few freckles dotted her and there. She belongs to the dramatic club and is also a member of the Girls' Glee Club.

Who is she?
Answer to last week's Guess Who—Irene Lynch.

Movie and Radio Guide

Radio: "Do You Still Like Crooners?"

You like crooning? Why don't you tune in the "Music Hall" on Thursday nights over WBN at 10 o'clock and listen to Bing Crosby? You'll not only have a famous crooner, but you can also listen to a young singer and ingenue of the movies, will return to radio as a guest star with Bing.

Do you like to know what the most popular songs of the season are? Dial in to CBS, WABC or WBFI on Saturday nights at 10. One of America's most famous orchestras play the ten most popular songs, according to their popularity. Songs that have lived for years are styled and played as extras. Some famous person is presented as a guest and you can always listen to the "chant of the tobacco auctioneer." The result "Your Lucky Strike Hit Parade."

Next Friday and Saturday, Shirley Temple will return in "Little Miss Marker." The second feature will be "The Plainman."

Sunday and Monday, you will be able to enjoy the "Form" quintuplets once more in "Five of a Kind." Jean Harsholt will play the part of Dr. Dafe. Once more, we'll get a big kick out of the "Dinner at Eight." They sing they try to talk and you get a laugh out of the "Squawk" radio show.

Cold storage lockers to preserve meats, fruits and vegetables are now being used by from 800,000 to 1,000,000 American families, estimates show.
