The Zipper Pinochle Club will meet this Friday evening with Mrs. Nora Higby. Alfred's carillon bells have been recorded by a sound system and records are now available. Jay Bunt received word of the recent arrival of a great-grandson, Charles Jay, to Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Turner of Ceres.

Thru the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce of Belfast, the Main street has been strung with colored lights in harmony with the seasonal decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Linford Grossman have moved from Rochambeau avenue into the house owned by the late Frank Gray, corner of First and West Greenwood streets.

Evidence of the business stimulus which Cuba has enjoyed in the last year are reflected in house building and remodeling which has been in progress recently. Cuba has been in.

Charles Scott had the misfortune to break both bones in his leg below the knee Saturday while working in the woods when a log fell from the wagon. He is now in St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell.

Miss Jane Gilly of Belmont has succeeded Miss Marion Keiser as clerk in the Allegany county laboratory under bacteriologist William C. George. The cause of non-lethal Miss F. is the cause of the change.

Reford L. Thompson, 22, Cuba, is in the county jail, following his pleading guilty to leaving the scene of an accident on Cuba-Black Creek road which cost the life of Myron Royce. The January Grand Jury may find the case a serious affair if rumored facts are true.

The S. P. P. Club met at the home of Mrs. Edward Walsh Monday night for their pay-off. After an evening of cards a dinner was served to the winners by the losers Mrs. Edward Hyland, Mrs. C. L. Lynch and Mrs. Walsh. Mrs. C. L. Lynch is entertaining the club at a Christmas party at her home this Thursday evening.

The Thimble Club met with Mrs. Neil Callaghan Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Alice Beihl of East Valley is very ill in the St. James Mercy hospital in Hornell.

Mrs. Irving Gillfillan is suffering from burns received when her clothing caught fire from a gas stove.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeland and family have moved from Elm Valley to the Edward Walsh house on Maple street.

Miss Doris Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson of Alfred is improving in the Bethesda hospital in Hornell.

Dr. Leonard L. Howell, Belmont's youngest professional man, has been elected president of the Chamber of Commerce for the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton and family have moved from the Edward Walsh house on Maple street into the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Howard.

The remodeled old David A. Howe library building known now as the New Municipal Building at Wellsville opened its doors to the public Saturday for inspection.

Elmo F. Randolph, field executive of Steuben Tri County Boy Scouts, has resigned his position and accepted a call as pastor of the Second Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church at Alfred Station.

Mrs. Margaret Mullen Evans of Fremont, N. Y., is seriously ill with pneumonia. Mrs. Evans is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mullen and niece of E. A. Mullen and Mrs. Jay Bunt of this village.

The Belfast Blaze has been sponsoring a subscription campaign and cash prizes have been awarded. Bernard Hainey received first prize of $150; Clifford Chamberlain $50 and Mrs. Linda Buckhoefer Canoeada, $25.

James A. Young, Angolia, was elected chairman of the Farm Bureau executive committee succeeding Walter B. Wright. Mrs. Cecile M. Bidwell of Canoeada was re-elected chairman of the Home Bureau executive committee.

Members of Allentown board of education have revised regulations relative to the classification of Seniors. All students must complete 12 units of work by the middle of the year to be placed as seniors and having an average below 70 per cent in one or more subjects must pass a final examination in order to graduate.

Cuba experienced its first labor union picketing when several members of Olean Local C. I. A. F. of L. began an eight hour daily grind in front of Cuba's new central high school construction, where both union and unorganized skilled mechanics and laborers were working. No violence resulted and no attempts were made to enter the building.

Thursday evening the afternoon and evening divisions of the Kings Daughters of the Presbyterian church held a 7 o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Robison, with the tables beautifully decorated with holiday trimmings and candle-lighted. The members came in old fashioned costumes and played games during the evening. Gifts were presented the Sunday school for the Christmas tree.

Belfast Grange has highest average attendance at Pomona Grange during the past year and has been awarded the prize held by Canoeada Grange.

The Mary and Martha Class of the Baptist church met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Hattie B. Eggleston Monday evening for a Christmas meeting. A special offering was taken to help other less fortunate and a devotional service with Christmas carols and games completed a fine program. Refreshments were served and a fine time reported.

Fire Badly Damages Smith Farm House

The Harry Smith farm house on Pingrey Hill, occupied by Henry Beihl and family, was badly damaged by fire last Saturday about noon. The fire started in the attic and having to go some distance to summon the firemen, the roof was a mass of flames when the local company arrived.

The firemen were badly handicapped by lack of water, but with the fine work done by John Elster who hauled many truck loads of water from the Sidney Kaple and Michael Gavin farms, the boys managed to save the back half of the building under which was a cellar containing approximately 250 bushels of potatoes and other goods.

Sotheran Passes Bar Examination

Reginald J. Sotheran, a law student in Crayton L. Farley's law office, received notice this morning that he had passed the bar examination of the State of New York. This is the fourth law student who has passed the bar examination from Mr. Farley's office.

Mr. Sotheran also graduated from Buffalo Law School, June 1938. He has not been sworn in and admitted to the bar as yet, but will be later in the regular manner.

He is to be congratulated because less than fifty per cent of the graduates of applicants from the Buffalo school passed the bar at the October term.

J. L. Williams Bars Burns at Wellsville

A house on the Wellsville fair grounds, owned by J. L. Williams of Andover, was badly damaged. Two head of young cattle and five tons of hay belonging to Marvin Hills were destroyed by fire Sunday evening.

There were 21 head of cattle in the barn. All but one were removed but one was burned so badly it had to be killed. The fire is believed to have been started by tramp.

W. W. G. Girls Meet

The World Wide Guild girls met with Mrs. Donald Kemp Saturday evening where a fine three-fold program was held, counting the many things they were thankful for at Thanksgiving time, the birth of Christ for which they are thankful for all time, and the New Year to look forward to the coming months. There was also a recipe to make the Christmas merry. A Christmas letter from Miss Eva Sheppard to the girls was read; songs by Barbara Lehman and Vivian Conners; Christmas poem; a number by Betty Halsey and Mareta Perry were enjoyed. The gifts which were taken were kept to be given to those in need at Christmas time. Refreshments were served to 35 present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Edna Clair.

An appreciative gift to anyone—a subscription to the Andover News. Send that distant friend or relative the home paper. Gift cards will be mailed with each, bearing your name—$2.00 per year, $1 for six months or 50 cents for three months.
