writer some day. I'd like to write some day, But I don't think I can I just sit here, idle. Like a lazy old man. It's no fun to be idle

When everyone else works But what can I do? Just give her the works! I'll get no credit for idleness

You have to work for a mark, But I just sit here dumbfounded Mad enough to bark. A Sunrise

Early in the morning When the grass is wet with dew, When the birds begin to waken And the buds of flowers, too, I like to watch the sun As it slowly climbs its way Upward, from the mighty rest Behind the hills of gray. Soft tints of pink and yellow A bit of orange too, Are splashed upon the morning sky An easel of wondrous hue. No living artist here on earth No matter how great or wise, Could ever really truly paint This glory of the skies.
