Plans for Firemen Celebration Here Well Under Way

Local Firemen Promise Fine Week's Entertainment and Large Carnival By Pioneer Shows.

Plans for the Firemen's Celebration in Andover from June 24th are going forward in fine with all committees working to be event one of the biggest in village for many years.

Although the various parades are completely arranged, the local men are planning on different ones for almost every evening of the week, besides a big game on Saturday and a water polo game on Friday evening.

The big night of the week will be Thursday evening, when firemen's bands, drum corps and choruses from many Allegany counties as well as Steuben county, Pennsylvania will be in the line.

Invitations to participate in Thursday night parade, sent of the general committee recently accepted by the following companies, most of whom will be accompanied by their auxiliary and drum corps:

Wellsville Fire Departments
 West Fire Department, Arkport and Ladder Company,
 Fire Department, Rushford Fire Department, Belfast Fire Department, Elmira Fire Department, Vero Fire Department, Canadota Fire Department, Weston's Mills Fire Department, Shinglehouse (Pa.) Department.

Many other companies have yet stated their acceptance and the Andover celebration local committee are confident the people of Andover will have the best parade in several years.

Any person interested in having a part or novelty in the business parade are requested to notify Clara Jackson, chairman.

Those wishing to parade in fraternal parade should get in with B. B. Hann. The fraternal parade will be under the direction of Grant Fuller, with the parade handled by Claude Loucks.

The water fights and banquets are under the chairman Oliver Kemp.

The general committee for celebration is composed of Weyley, F. S. Potter and Earl Allen. All members of the committee are working diligently to give the best of this section a full week with free acts nightly to midway on the Andover field, owned by Pioneer Show, Waverly and to which no admission will be charged. The parades or events na
