Martin is less hypocritical and frankly shows he has no i' against every piece of farm legislation since he has been a member of Congress for 15 years. Where Mr. Martin's sympathies lie was well indicated by a colloquy which took place on the floor c tion for the relief of agriculture. "Agriculture," said Mr. Martin, "is not going to climb back to prosperity over the prostrate body of industry. American agriculture will again be prosperous when American industry is prosperous."

Representative Lozier interrupted to ask: "Doesn't the gentleman realize that by impoverishing agriculture the best market of industry is destroyed; that we can have no rehabilitation of industry until we have a rehabilitation of agriculture?"

"I do not admit that," said Mr. Martin.
