RANDOM SHOTS By RALPH SHAFF

Well, fellows, how about the game so far this season? It has been my pleasure to cover quite a large part of this county and contact hunters. Everywhere the question has been the same—Where in thunder is the game? I am passing this same query on to you. Where are those pheasants the Club liberated? Better come out to the next Club meeting and let us know the answer. On the first day of the pheasant season one game warden contacted 54 hunters and only found seven birds in their possession. Rabbits seem to be about as hard to find as any other game and squirrels are simply out.

For the information of some of the farmers and their families who have the desire to do a little hunting or trapping on their own farm: Any farmer or member of his immediate family may fish or trap fur-bearing animals in season on property owned or operated by them or any member of the family may hunt on said premises without a license provided they are over 16 years of age. The law reads that it is illegal to carry fire arms under 16 years of age. To hunt deer anywhere in the state any person must be 16 years of age and purchase a special deer hunting license, even if you own the land the deer is on.

Doc Scott, George Sackett, John Lever and myself went duck hunting Sunday a. m., and came back with some duck, and I, as usual, fell in and got both boots full.
