ordered, leaving only 25c, $1.10 and $1.85 respectively for one of the finest rings in the modern vogue that students of A. C. S. have ever gallantly and proudly sported. B.J.L.

CHIT CHAT -

Dots and Dashes on the Dance:
Who was the blonde from Alfred that Don E. had so much fun with? If we expect more dances like this one more people will have to come. Some money was lost and certainly no one can complain about the orchestra.
Mr. Quigley's solo parts were simply great. That's a band that really is a band!
Where, or where were our teachers? Some, to be sure, were there but only a slight minority.
Some last minute dating must have been done. Vars, McAndrew, Driscoll and Lewis perhaps.
Several eyes of the male sex seemed inclined to follow the McCree miss around the floor and Betty Jo also liked the compliments she received about her escort.
"This whispered there will be no more such escapades unless more kids attend. (Personally townspeople could help!)
Carl W. and Chick Gath seem to be having good times fifth period, eh June?
Warren D. stared so hard at a girl across from him that he had to be moved.
The Xmas program wasn't bad considering.
Now that school is practically over everybody is back to normal, ready to work.
The school was fumigated Monday afternoon by the chemistry class which produced a few thousand feet of hydrogen sulphide gas.
Miss Larkin has really put the final Christmas touch in the library. We like the tinsel and green.
Does Crowner still gaze at one of the new lads?
So there's really going to be a skating rink in Andover? Swell, etc! When do we start?
Some Seniors are being very nice and telling parents they desire only to have their rings for a present. Any old day! They probably have their eye on the convertible at the corner!

How One Woman Lost 20 Pounds of FAT
Lost Her Prominent Hips
Lost Her Double Chin
Lost Her Sluggishness
Gained a More Shapely Figure and the Increase in Physical Vigor and Vivaciousness Which So Often Comes With Excess Fat Reduction.
Thousands of women are getting fat and losing their appeal just because they do not know what to do.
Why not be smart—do what thousands of women have done to get off pounds of unwanted fat. Take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water first thing every morning to gently activate liver, bowels and kidneys—cut down your caloric intake—eat wisely and satisfyingly—there need never be a hungry moment!
Keep this plan up for 30 days. Then weigh yourself and see if you haven't lost pounds of ugly fat. Just see if this doesn't prove to be the surprise of your life and make you feel like shouting the good news to other fat people. And best of all a jar of Kruschen that will last you for 4 weeks costs but little. If not joyfully satisfied—money back.

Off the Bookshelves

by Mary Mesler
When those boys from Whitesville were visiting the library last Friday they attracted quite a bit of attention.
Charles Hall contradicted Mr. Foote saying that he (Mr. Foote) had Romeo and Shakespeare mixed up.
The Lucky 13th dance Date Bureau created numerous laughs last Friday.
Some of us would have liked to be little mice in the library Monday after school to hear what our report card marks were.
Upon entering the library Tuesday noon many students expressed admiration for the additional Christmas decorations, which include a miniature tree decorated and with greens scattered around. Thanks, Dewey, for the tree.
Mrs. Joyce visited our library while substituting for a teacher last Friday.
It's wonderful to glance out of the windows decorated with reindeer and see the snow storms.
Thanks again Mr. McKibben for the contribution of the reindeer.
This Tuesday a lot of Seniors' fingers were sticking out like a sore thumb. It was merely to attract other students' attention to their supercolossal rings.
The diminutive Christmas carol singers scene denotes a wonderful ability to make things. Don't we all wish that we had at least part of the ability to make such things?
From Off the Bookshelves, I wish all of my readers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year—and as Tiny Tim says, "God bless us, everyone!"

Ten Minutes to Twelve!

The tick-tock, tick-tock of the hall clock was very loud and tedious and slow to the weary, sleepy minds of Johnny and Mary. They seemed to hear it in a very cloudy distance. Hours and ages had passed since two determined kids had settled down with a long-had desire to see "him"—the one and only. The great!
The slight scraping noises had been in process for quite some time before four blue eyes snapped alertly open. Breathing became harder. Hands doubled into fists. Hearts pumped audibly. Even when you're only eight, desires and wishes can become so acute that it makes living and waiting one second longer an acute torture. Thus did the straining bodies of the two pajama-clad youngsters feel.

"At last—at last!" raced thru Mary's head.
"Now—now, I'll see him!" churched thru Johnny's.

One particularly loud clatter ended and thru the fireplace stepped a burly, cherry-red nosed, singularly spontaneous individual—Santa Claus
One indifferent, casual glance Johnny and Mary bestowed upon him and no more. Their eyes darted back to the post—the hearth. Far be it from Santa to admit discomfort. Secretly he did feel bad. They weren't even excited about seeing him!
"Waiting for something, my loves?" he probed.
Sparkling good humor has always stood a man in good, even St. Nick. So when he received his answer, the astonishment instantly gave way to merry relief.
"Yes, Mr. Claus, we are. Didn't you bring Dander, your lead deer, with you, please?" —B. Ludden

That Nagging Backache
May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action
Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—risks of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become overtaxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.
You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feet constantly raised and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.
Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
