Firemen's Second Junk Rally Starts Sunday

Farmers Especially Are Asked to Help In This Vital Issue. - Trucks Will Canvass Entire Section.

$2.00 Year; 5c Copy

Beginning this Sunday morning the Andover Fire Department will have several trucks out in an effort to gather much needed scrap metal. Farmers especially are asked to pick up what small pieces they find in the fields and woods, near fence corners, etc., and bring them to the Andover scrap pile on West Greenwood street sc that rubber and gasoline can be saved the crews that are working in the collection of the scrap.

The situation now is that the backlog of scrap metals which was collected last year is nearly used up. More must be found for use during this year and next | winter. Last year's collection consisted of the scrap which was most readily available. There are still thousands of tons left in the county but which will take more effort to get out. Farmers are especially busy at this time, but one hour by any member of your family to act as guide can save much time for the workers in getting out the scrap. If you have any heavy scrap machinery the fire boys will do the work of getting it out so that you lose no time. And again we remind both vil-
