Following a short concert by Andover American Legion band, Mayor Earl J. Allen as master of ceremonies, gave a few well chosen remarks relative to th origin of Andover's Honor Rol. which was followed by prayer by Rev. Harold R. Austin, pastor of the Andover Presbyterian church. A male chorus from Wellsville under the direction of William Lang of Andover rendered two groups of patriotic songs on the program, which were greatly enjoyed by the audience.

Credit for Andover's Honor Roll, which now carries 161 names, is due to the Thomas M. Lynch American Legion and, Auxiliary, the Auxiliary being the instigators of the project with the Legion assisting with the work and plans. The expense of the board so far has, with the exception of a few donations, been borne by the Legion and
