County Firemen's Convention Held Frank Royce of Cuba

TET_

Elected President of the Allegany Association.

Over 150 delegates and guests of the Allegany County Volunl teer Firemen's Association met * lat Bolivar last Wednesday evenwhich eliminated the annual parlade and all of the celebration which usually is part of this annual gathering.

Holding closely to their purpose of doing every bit possible to aid the war effort, the volunlagainst holding a parade and decided upon the one evening session in which to conduct their business of the year.

Frank Royce of Cuba was lelected president for the coming year. Other officers named include: Fritz Graves, Wellsville, first vice president, Albert Stevllens, Caneadea, second vice president and J. F. Dunning, Bolivar, treasurer. Mr. Hand, president of the association last year was 'lelected secretary to succeed Karl Buehring, Wellsville, who served in that office for 14 years. Mr. nehring declined-renomination. Belfast, Almond and Friendship all extended an invitation to play host to next year's convention. One of the three will be designated later by members of the executive committee. Delegates voted to invest $500
