130 MILLION QUARTERBACKS YOU are doing an outstanding job calling the signals for your railroads to score with a volume of traffic which exceeds anything in transportation history. Without your help Erie and other American railroads on the "All-American" transportation team would not be able to do this tremendous job. True, your railroads are sharing equipment and facilities to provide a great national transportation system. Your railroad men-your shippers and receivers of freight-all are working together their transportation requirements. But it has been your patient understanding and willing

All government agencies are giving invaluable assistance in coordinating this

And your Army and Navy are doing a wonderful job in organizing and planning assistance that have made possible the amazing record of your railroads. And, with your continued help, your railroads will continue winning the battle of transportation whatever may be the ultimate demands necessary to achieve victory.
