Exchange Club Again Sponsors A.C.S. Fair

The Andover Exchange Club is again sponsoring the Andover Central School Agricultural and Homemaking Fair to be held at the school next Thursday, September 30th, afternoon and evening.

The afternoon activities will be devoted mainly to demonstrations on fitting and showing a dairy animal and the judging of cattle, vegetables and homemaking exhibits, with a few shows to be added as a sideline. If arrangements can be made for a soccer game, there will be one later in the afternoon and of course the school band will provide music for the afternoon program.

The evening program will be an open house so people can see the exhibits, followed by a program in the auditorium, including band, chorus, movies, presentation of awards and auctioning off of vegetables which are exhibited.

Any girl or boy in F. H. A. or F. F. A. organizations or 4-H Club are eligible to exhibit, with prize money being donated by some of the business places in town and some coming from the treasury of the F.F.A. and 4-H Club.

94 Registrants Report For Draft In Andover

Allegany County Draft Board Now Complete With Office In Court House at Belmont.

Andover had 94 registrants in the 18- to 25-year-old groups when the registration closed Saturday night.

The Selective Service Law requires that persons born on or after September 19, 1930 shall register within five days after they have attained their 18th birthday. For the convenience of the public, registration in Andover for boys reaching their 18th birthday will be continued at the Andover News office.

With the recommendation by Judge Ward M. Hopkins of Walter T. Hunt of Angelica, Harland J. Strahan of Fillmore and Leon J. McDonnel of Bolivar, the Allegany County Draft Board is now completed. C. C. Backus of Andover and J. J. Herman of Wellsville are the other two members of the five-man board.

The board office is in the Court House at Belmont, with Miss Marie Amsden of Cuba the clerk in charge.

Beil—VanName

Mrs. Madaline VanName, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Merton Sweet of Fillmore became the bride of Lyle Beil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beil of Andover Saturday afternoon, September 18th at 2 o'clock, at the residence of the Rev. Shaffer of Hume. The couple was attended by Miss Eileen German of Fillmore and Harry Beil, brother of the groom, of Andover.

The bride was gowned in a brown checked suit, with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. She chose the same attire for her traveling outfit. Her matron of honor wore a blue suit with red accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue print dress with black accessories.

Following the ceremony the wedding party and the immediate families were served dinner at the home of the groom's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coates of Andover. The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake. Immediately after the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Beil left on a short motor trip to Buffalo and vicinity.

The bride is a graduate of the Fillmore High School and the groom served one year in the U. S. Army, with overseas service in Guam. He is employed by the Empire Gas & Fuel Company in Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Beil will make their home in Fillmore for the present.

W. W. Boyd Presented 50-Year Masonic Medal

W. W. Boyd of Andover Lodge No. 558, F. & A. M., was presented the Grand Lodge 50-year medal by District Deputy James R. Evans of Alfred when he made his official visit to Andover Lodge Monday evening.

Mr. Boyd was made a Master Mason in Andover Lodge on April 18, 1898. Soon after that, however, he moved to Perry and later transferred his membership to Constellation Lodge No. 404 of Perry, of which he was an active member for a number of years, serving several years as the lodge secretary.

After leaving Perry Mr. Boyd was business manager of fruit and sugar plantations in Puerto Rico from 1912 until 1943 when he retired and has now established his permanent residence at Eustis, Fla.

A few years ago he transferred his membership back to his home lodge in Andover.

Veterans Asked to Co-operate

Albany, Sept. 21—More than a thousand checks issued as payment of the State's bonus to veterans of World War II are being held in Albany at the New York State Veterans Bonus Bureau awaiting claimants. These checks were mailed to the last known address of veterans and have been returned by postal authorities as undeliverable.

"If veterans or next of kin of deceased veterans who have made application for the bonus prior to August 1, and have not received a check or a notice of disallowance, will write to the Bureau giving name, service serial number and date of filing, we can undoubtedly clear our files of these unprocessed claims," says George E. Rowley, bonus director.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge underwent a major operation in St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell, Saturday morning.

Floyd Farwell is a surgical patient in St. Mary's hospital in Rochester.

Smallpox and Diphtheria Toxoid Clinics Here

There will be a small pox vaccination clinic held in the Andover Central School on Thursday September 30th, at 1:00 p. m. This clinic will be conducted by Dr. S. B. Scott school physician and health officer. All children one year of age or over who have not been vaccinated should be vaccinated at this time and all children who have not been vaccinated in the past five years should be revaccinated at this time.

The protection against diphtheria is the toxoid inoculation. This toxoid is given in a series of two doses. Both doses are necessary for adequate protection. The first toxoid clinic will be held on October 14, 1948 and the second one on November 18, 1948. All children 6 months of age or over who have never been inoculated for diphtheria and all children entering school who were inoculated when they were babies should have this protection at this time.

This clinic is free of charge and open to the public and we urge that parents will take advantage of this opportunity to avail themselves of complete protection for their children against these diseases.
