This is your Senior Class of 1949 speaking. We are the boys and girls of yesterday who seemingly grew up overnight and now stand, as Seniors, ready and eafter graduation.

The last year of high school is a busy one as well as one of importance. We Seniors have been confronted with problems which we have not had to face before—editing a yearbook, preparing for graduation, wondering how to raise money to pay for the more of murdred and one expenses that arise during the year.
