Support the Republican Candidate for District Attorney E. ALLEN MAPES

- He is experienced.
- 2. He is able.
- His record for suppression of crime is unassailable.
- His compensation is fixed by the Board of Supervisors. The elected District Attorney, no matter who he is, will receive the compensation fixed by the Board.

DO YOU KNOW

That the Democratic candidate for District Attorney was present at a recent meeting of the lawyers of Allegany County and voted in favor of a resolution to request the Board of Supervisors to increase the salary of the office of District Attorney?

Why does the Democratic candidate now, in his paid advertisements, deny that he is for such an increase?

Hail These People

CANDIDATES who MIX with the PEOPLE

ROW B is the "of the people, by the people and for the people" slate in next Tuesday's election—THEY DO MIX—PEOPLE and PUBLIC SERVICE—in the Old-fashioned Democratic manner that keeps pace with the times.

THEIR RECORD INVITES YOUR VOTE

FOR GOVERNOR—WALTER A. LYNCH: Faithful servant in Congress. Zealous advocate for liberal government. A staunch

FOR U. S. SENATOR—SENATOR HERBERT H. LEHMAN: Eight years as governor won him fame as executive. UNRA directorship enhanced that service. He endows this great office in the

U. S. Senate with the stature of statesmanship. FOR LIEUT.-GOV. — RICHARD H. BALCH: Utica leader who mixes politics and business, with 25 years of public service to back his challenge to business men to take a more active part in politics. 'Nuf sed. FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL — FRANCIS D'AMANDA: Rochester attorney, credited by associates with one of the most brilliant and best disciplined legal minds in the State.

FOR COMPTROLLER—SPENCER C. YOUNG heads world's most complex municipal fiscal division, as treasurer of the City of

District and County

FOR CONGRESS—FREDERICK S. BUCK of Wellsville: Seeks to end the "old taboo" against Allegany County having district political offices. Seventy years have elapsed since Old Allegany has sent one of its own citizens to Congress. Write your own ticket of self-respect by voting his Row B ticket Tuesday.

FOR STATE SENATE—EDWARD W. SPRY of LeRoy: 35 years an educator, 18 years as LeRoy Superintendent. Now operates his own 170-acre farm.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY—ROBERT L. FLEISCHER of Wellsville: Pump new life into our own county's public service. Mr. Fleischer backs up his outstanding record in court work with this pledge: "I want the job, definitely. The salary is adequate, definitely so." His fine record as Wellsville Village Attorney warrants promotion.

FOR MEMBER OF ASSEMBLY—EUGENE E. FORHAN of Wellsville: His public service began as a first voter in 1940, as head of the Young Democratic Club in the county. Gained rank of Major in Army Air Forces in European combat area, World War II.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER—LEMAN BABBITT of Houghton: Annapolis graduate. Navy aviator, veteran of Vera Cruz and World War I, now retired. Past executive officer Allegany County ABC Board. Now Caneadea farmer and farm equipment dealer.

FOR SHERIFF—ERNEST W. SCHUTT of West Almond. Veteran of World War II, with long service in the Pacific combat zone. As U. S. Census Enumerator last Spring set record of canvassing three census districts and rechecking 4th district. Runs family farm.
