Home Bureau

September marks the beginning of the Home Bureau membership drive in our community. The program for the year offers many new projects as well as repeats on some others. These projects were selected to meet the interests of all age groups.

Women who want to make their homes more attractive will be making lamps (both bases and shades). Other women who have lamps with worn shades will find the project on making fabric lampshades very useful. doubt many homemakers electric cords which need repair. Worn electric cords on toasters lamps, irons, and so forth can be repaired easily with the right know how. And if you have some houseplants with one foot in the grave and the other on a banana peel, the project on care of houseplants is in order.

The culinary minded homemaker will be interested in projects on Christmas cookies, yeast breads, main dishes for one dish meals and fruit desserts. Many women will be sporting cotton dresses which they will make in their Home Bureau units. Every seamstress will want to learn to use her sewing machine fully. She'll learn how to choose the right sized needle and thread, how to regulate the tension and length of stitch also how to use some of the sewing machine at-

In view of the world situation everyone should know how help the injured in civilian defense. We should know what to do and what not to do in case of burns, shock, fractures, suffocations, wounds, etc. Other topics which will be discussed at Home Bureau meeting include United Nations, cancer control, finding street length dress of teel blue ways to save, recreation leadership, and family life. Appreciation

A Message From Our Mayor . . .

September 3rd signals the start of America's first Defense Bond Drive across the nation.

Defense of our country is not just the job of our boys in battlegarb, who are risking and giving their lives in the cause of our freedom. Defense of our country is everybody's job -- mine and yours. We can all help defend our country by buying Defense Bonds because, although Defense Bonds fight on the home front rather than the battlefront, they are weapons of defense just as surely as are tanks, planes and guns. Just as our boys on the battlefront must be constantly on the job, we can not defend our country on the home front on:a hit-ormiss basis. We must build up our defenses on the home front constantly and systematically. And we cannot afford to relax, no matter what the outcome of peace negotiations in Korea. In defense of our country, I urge every one of you to give most serious thought to investing as much as you can regularly and systematically in Defense Bonds. You can buy Bonds regularly and automatically through the payroli savings plan where you work, or through the Bond-A-Month plan or over the counter at your bank, or you can buy Defense Bonds and Stamps at your

Share the responsibility for your country's defense by getting behind your country's first Defense Bond Drive. Invest in Defense Bonds regularly for your own and your country's future. Back up our fighting men who stand ready to give their lives.
