In My Opinion By Ann Marvel

Several of the students this week were asked the question, "Should Andover Central Have the Game, Football and Why?"

The replies were: many of us like to watch the games and many others might like to participate.' David Marsh, "Yes, if there are enough who are interested in this sport it can be an interesting game when played at Sandy Bostwick, "Yes, because so many other schools have and say its so much fun to play and watch." Jim Connor, "No, because we have a full season as it is and only one coach." Ann Harvey, "Yes. It is a wholesome game. It would provide a game right at the beginning of school.' Clyde Jackson, "Soccer is a better sport and the cost is less for equipment."... Wayne Atwell, "No, it would cost the school too much money for uniforms and there aren' enough boys in school who are interested." Bill Glover, "Yes, because Soc-

By Charity Howland Once again this fall we are goto continue interviewing the A.C.S. students about their favorite pets. In the limelight for the first time is "Skip", a dog owned by a senior, Margaret

Margaret tells me that Skip was only a month old when they acquired him and he has just recently passed his eighth birthday. If you should meet a big black doy with a white tipped tail and a white chest with black spots you'll know it's Skip. His ancesters were police and coach. Besides following Margaret around continually and playing ball with Anna Marie Joyce, Skip often finds himself in midst of a rip-roaring dog fight and does he love it! Like any nornal pet Skip just loves candy and often as a reward Margaret buys chocolate bar for him. Once again next week I'll in-
