Meet Coach Stackwick

For the benefit sports fans, here is the inside information on our Edward Stackwick. The first coach was "Where is your home-This itself explains how coach feels toward Andover. He pointed out the fine qualities of the town and especially the saw a fine set up in very many towns. Now, I'm sure you are interested in his past life. Born and raised in Batavia where he participated in basketball, baseball, track and football. After graduating from high school, he attended Brockport State Teachers College. He taught physical education at Shortville or Red Jacket as it was later called.

When asked what his coaching was based on he replied. like my boys to hustle every minute and drive hard on every play. I also believe in good condition." When asked about the outlook of A.C.S. sports he answered, "No coach can predict." But he went on to say he liked the boys. "They appear to have a good i talent and appear very eager. The soccer team is shaping up very well and appear to be in very good shape."

Coach Stackwick is married and lives on Barney street. He has a five year old son and a four months old daughter.

Richburg Kickers Win Soccer Contest

By Danny Pelton Tuesday night on the local field Richburg with a driving team took a close one in soccer over the local Panthers.

The Andover kickers took an early lead in the first few minutes of the first quarter. The goal was scored for Andover by Richburg fullback. The fourth quarter was well under way and goals by the left inside and left wing scored Richburg's goals to make the score Richburg four,

Michael Connor and Dolores Brown are the present reporters. Seniors Plan Social Hour

Friday, eighth period, for the purpose of drawing up the senior class activities calendar scheduled a social hour for Friday, Sept. 21. year. Since this is the first event of Mr. Glenn Bronson painted on the year we hope for a big turnhis house and visited some boys out. A good time is guaranteed to all who attend. Admission wil be 14 cents. I refreshment stand at the school fair, September 27 will also be sponsored by the class

Because of the lack of referees for soccer games, the schedule is going to be revised Wednesday of this week. Therefore the game with Wellsville scheduled for Friday may be can-

This year more interest has been taken in soccer than ever before. We have new cheerleaders with lots of zip and pep. More students seem to turn out for the games. In practice nights there is lots of chatter from the hard playing fellows.
