Sunday February 3, 1952, commemorates the anniversary of the -ing start this week with the anfateful day on which the immoral Four Chaplains gave their lives when the U.S. Transport Dorchester was torpedoed in the North Atlantic.

At the 33rd National Convention of The American Legion a resolution was passed calling for the recognition of this historic and inspiring event by observing this date, or the Sunday immediately preceding or following it, "Go To Church Sunday" throughout our nation, and en-the day of enduring peace. American Legion was dedicated, and those are the words we should ever live by. It is fitting therefore that we of The American Legion have fought together in three wars should pray together today, and that we should implore the people of our nation to join with us in an appeal for Divine Guidance in one of the dark hours of our country's history.

Need for a spiritual reawakening of our people was never more clearly manifest than now, with the world engaged in a struggle between those who believe in April 1951, and God and freedom and those who believe in Godlessness and slav-
