Scouting For Democracy By Mary Brown

Yesterday marked the 40th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States. For forty years this great organization has been helping girls to realize the ideals of womanhood, and preparing them for their responsibilities in the home. These girls also consider service to the community one of their purposes.

The Girl Scout Promise helps to develop loyalty towards God and country, and the Laws serve as a simple code which every girl can put into practice in her

Scouting activities are many and varied, including such subjects as nature study, woodcraft, health, first aid, games, music, drama, cooking, homemaking and
