Hornfrogs Win Community Basketball Title

"Knicks" and "Slow Pokes" were tied for second place with four wins and six losses each.

This years league was a bitter fight to the end, it is exemplified by the final standings. Scores through out the year were close, only on two occassions were any of the games "run aways." The four teams engaged in a the consolation game the "Slow Pokes" defeated the "Knicks" and in the finals the "Hornfrogs" edged the "Tramps." Coach Ed Stackwick wishes to thank the team captains for their cooperation in making the league a success it was, also "Ki" Carmody who directed the play the absence of the director. T officiating was performed by the Andover Central School Varsity and Junior Varsity. They too deserve much credit. Witnessing the spirit shown in made toward forming a four team softball loop.
