

How To Prevent Falls

Before you start spring housecleaning, consider the most common causes of falls and make sure that your house doesn't have these lurking hazards.

Do you have stairs that are not well lighted or on which a your cellar stairs have a handrail? Is each step of the stairs in good condition? Do the children ever leave toys on the steps. Next, what do you stand on when you reach the top of your stepstool, a short stepladder, or a firm, steady chair? Or do you sometimes step up on a rocking hem of the sheet at the head of chair or a rickety table or box whatever happens to be nearby?

Is anything on the floor that a person may stumble over-toys. footstools, cleaning equipment? Are there any rugs that slide on waxed floors? The right answers to these questions may prevent serious accidents.
