Vacation School In Blessed

Sacrament Parish The Catholic Diocese of Buffalo will open the first session of its extensive Religious Vacation School Program on Monday, July , according to the Reverend Raymond F. Herzing, Director of the Diocesan Program. Fifty-one parishes will be enrolled in the program which will continue during July and August. It is estimated that the registration for the two sessions will include abou 3,500 children of elementary school age.

Blessed Sacrament Parish ir Andover, has held very successful Religious Vacation School Programs in the past and will again be prepared to carry on the work his summer. The Rev. John R. Shea, Pastor of Blessed Sacrament Parish, extends an invitation to all he parents to send their elementary school children to the Summer School classes which will be conducted each week-day morning except on Saturday.

His Excellency, the Most Rev. Joseph A. Burke, has appointed two Seminarians to carry on the work of the Vacation Schools in Blessed Sacrament Parish. They are Mr. Francis Braun of St. Bonaventure Seminary and Mrs. Robert Swick, also of St. Bonaventure Seminary. Mr. Braun is a 3rd year theologian and Mr. Swick is in his second year of Philosophy.

Each of the Seminarians has had previous training and well equipped to carry on the work of the Summer School Program.

Fresh Air Children

We have had only one request for a Fresh Air Child this week. The Albert Smiths have asked for Carmela Fattore to come again, and we are hoping more requests will come in very soon. Remember the goal is twenty children this summer, and that the children are coming July 15th for a two weeks' much needed vacation. The Fresh Air committee are planning several means of entertaining the children this year if necessary funds are provided for
