No one can afford to live too close to the margin of his income.

The days ahead must be provided for, and can only be taken care of at the time of prosperity.

Good luck and earning capacity do not last indefinitely, that's why wise people put money in a bank.

Heinemann-Padden

Miss Tersa Ann Padden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Padden of Andover, RD 1, and Arthur Heinemann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heinemann of Wellsville were united in marriage at 11 a. m. Saturday morning, June 21, Immaculate Conception Rectory in Wellsville.

The Rev. Francis O'Meara performed the double ring ceremony in a room decorated with baskets of pink peonies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white bridal satin and chantilly lace. The long sleeved bodice was fashioned with a pointed collar of satin faced with lace, a full skirt with a double peplum of satin, edged with lace, that fell to a unic length at back. The skirt into a cathedral length train.
