Hot Weather Coolness For extra coolness, try keeping your favorite colognes and face cream in the refrigerator. They'll or lamp with wet hands. Don't be twice as refreshing when you handle any connected appliance, use them.

Children's Sun Suits Are extra sun suits for the children on your shopping list? If so, the clothing specialists at Cornell have suggestions to help you select these suits.

The child's comfort is the first consideration. Usually a suit that has support from the shoulders is a good choice. If it has straps, the straps should be crossed in band so they won't slide off the child's shoulders. If the suit has Saratoga Springs. elastic around the waist, be sure it is not so tight that it will leave Nellie Harvey of Wellsville was tic that is wide enough will not Chairman. drop down.

You'll do well to select cotton You'll then be sure of a Assessment-Roll material that absorbs moisture Seersucker and crepe little or no ironing. Denim is a good, sturdy fabric. When you buy suits, look at their construction. Those cut on the strainght grain of the material won't stretch out of shape. Choose suits with simple trim mings and see that they are well stitched and well applied. Snaps or buttons and buttonholes are better for fastenings and ties.

Fire Prevention Do you have a window near your stove? If so, do not have Second Tuesday of August Next, curtains near it where they may and that on such day, at 1 to 4 blow into a flame, and don't put o'clock in the afternoon, said towel racks or a clothesline near an open flame.
