Potter-Baker

The Blessed Sacrament Church was the scene of an early fall wedding Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when Miss Lucille Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John .. Baker was united in marriage with Arden Potter, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Potter of Westfield, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John R. Shea. Mrs. Helen Dolan presided at the organ. During the Nuptial

Mass, Mrs. James Baker sang, "Ave Maria" and at the close Ronald LaForge sang, "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother." The bride was given in marriage by her father, was attired in an iridescent taffeta dress i shades of blue fashioned with tight fitting bodice with low necklines in front and back, and a bouffant skirt accented with accordian pleats to the hipline. small velvet hat trimmed with iridescent beads complemented her dress as did the rest of her accessories. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and pink sweet peas caught with white satin streamers.

Miss Ruth Baker was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore iridescent taffeta in shades of autumn leaf red made identical to the bride's dress. She wore a small black hat and accessories, and carried an old fashioned bouquet of tawny yellow roses and rust gladiolus, caught with green and rust streamers. Andrew Braunschweiger Wellsville acted as best man and Robert Beebe of Cuba and John Devore of Wellsville were ushers. The bride's mother selected 5 dress of navy blue lace over taffeta with navy and white accessories and a corsage of red roses.
