The Field Day will be open to the general public who are encouraged to come to the Bog and learn what is going on in the Game Management Area which is the site of one of the Conservation Department's Conservation Camps

The Bog is a natural game management area which was acquired by the Federal Government 1936-39 by purchase of idle and worn out lands which have now been leased to the State of New York for a Game Management

Anyone interested in further details of this sporting event can secure in formation by contacting one of their local club members, reports, Mr. Reed.

When the white men discovered this country, the Indians were running it. There were no taxes. There was no debt. The women did all the work and the white men thought-they could improve on a system like that.
