"We are very fortunate in securing the services of Dr. Zwick as our luncheon speaker and hope many Teen Agers and their parents, as well as all interested persons, will find it posible to hear him," said Mrs. Edward W. Briggs, Jr., Chairman of the Mental Health Association.

Dr. Margaret T. Ross, director of the New York State Society for Mental Health, State Charities Loyalty month. Plan to attend the Aid Association, will attend the Institute. In addition to summarizing the day's program, Dr. Ross will also conduct a question and answer period. Dr. Ross was graduated from Vassar College and received her Doctorate of Medicine from Johns Hopkins University in 1920. She has been associated with the New York Infirmary, Kings Park and Rockland State Hospitals both in New York State, and with the Hackett Medical School in Canton, China. In 1934, Dr. Ross became associated with the Brigham Hall Hospital, a private institute for nervous and mental conditions, in Canandaigua, New York., and from 1940 until her appointment as Director and Executive Secretary of the New York State Society for Mental Health, in October 1951, was physician-in-charge there. Dr. Ross is a fellow of the American Psychiatric Association.
