"Amistice Day"

By Charity Howland In 1918, on November 11 the soldiers in the greatest war the world had then seen stopped fighting.

The war had all started over the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand of Austria and before it had finished over twenty million people had died. Over the four years it had been fought an unbelieveable amount of damage had been done to property.

In 1921, by an act of Congress the 11th of November, known as Armistice Day, became a legal public holiday. On the first anniversary an unknown American soldier, brought from the battlefield of France, was buried with the highest honors in the Arlington National Cemetery in the Nation's Capital. This one soldier to this day represents all the brave American soldiers who have paid the supreme sacrifice in our

Safety While Hunting

By David Conde' Many Americans, young teenagers, are turning their interests toward hunting. Although many of them are excellent hunters they do not realize the grave danger involved. Every year people are killed and critically injured because some one's carelessness. About ninety percent of the mishaps while hunting are due to carelessness. If people would just follow the simple rules that govern safe hunting, the sport could enjoyed by more people. Some of these rules are as follows:

1. Besure of your target before 2. Don't lean on your gun barrel 3. Respect a gun, it may be

4. Don't aim a gun at anybody. 5. Dôn't leave a loaded gun in car or camp. 6. Don't mix alcohol with gun-

7. Always know where your companions are. 8. Break and unload the gun when crossing a fence. 9. Respect property a distruc-tive guest is unwanted. 10. Keep the muzzle of your gun free from obstruction. If anyone would follow these simple rules there would be fewer accidents and hunting could be enjoyed more widely. Remember the life you safe may be your

Andover Downs Whitesville By Mike Smith

The new Whitesville socco team journeyed to Andover recently to play a non-league game to see if they were going to have a good soccor team, but the Andover boys turned them down 12-0. In the first and second quarters the first team played them and got 8 points from them. Dick Davis booted two goals for the Panthers, netting four points, Charlie Lehman and Avery Mead got the other two goals.

In the last half the second team came in and had a good time. Dick Burger kicked the ball for the goal and the fullback kicked it back and hit Dick in the leg and bounced off Dick's leg and went thru the goal for Dick's first two points of the season. Ed Harkenrider headed the other goal in the last second to make the score 12-0. This was the last soccor game of
