Take Me Out to the

By Charity Ann Howland "Take me out to the ballgame (Andover vs Arkport), take me out with the crowd (Andover rooters)' buy me some peanuts and crackerjack (from the senior stand). I don't care if I never get back, for it's root, root, root for the home team, if they don't win it's a shame for it's one, two, three baskets and you win at the ballgame," Have you ever heard this song? Possibly not this version but it really suits the

As all A.C.S. students and sports minded people of Andover should know, the first non-league basketball game of the season will be played Friday night. The Andover "Wildcats" will meet the Arkport Jayvees while the Andover "Panthers" will challenge the Arkport Varsity on the local sons, friends, neighbors and most turn out Friday night and show the players we're behind them "winning or losing" with good sportsmanship all the way.

Gay Rogers, Betty Harris

Have you noticed the excellent reports we have been getting every morning from the seniors as a part of their work in English IV. Every morning at 8:50 they give a summary of the school world and local news from Mr.

This week and next we shall hear Gay Rogers and Betty Harris reporting. The next two weeks we shall hear Ron Monahan and John Baker reporting.

This news casting provides the latest news summary for the pupils of all grades and helps the reporters improve their enunciaation, pronunciation and voice

Basketball Players To Have Foul Shooting

Ceach Edward Stackwick has put the ladder up for the foul under motion soon to keep the J.V.'s and Varsity in good practice in shooting foul shots.

The boys will put their names on a piece of paper and a number on it. The numbers will run 1-16 on the J.V.'s and 1-10 on the Varout of the hat, you will get your card and put it in the number you Faculty Attend drew on the ladder.

M you drew number 10, you could challenge number 8 or 9 but you can't challenge anyone that is three or more steps above it. If you challenge someone twice night you can't challenge him rain. If you beat the boy ahead The winner of the tournament from Coach Stackwick on

Student Council To Sell Season Tickets

During the Student Council meeting last Friday, November 27 Coach Stackwick announced that the 1952-53 basketball season tickets will go on sale, being sold by the Student Council members and also by A.C.S. students. However, to make the sale of these tickets more appealing it was decided to hold a contest. The banner simular to the football banner for inner-class champions. Both adults and students may save $1.95 on student tickets which are being sold for $1.25 and $2.00 on tickets which are being sold for $2.25.
