To Retire May 1st

John C. Lever retires after nearly fifty years in Andover Banks. —Feted by Bankers Wednesday night. (Reporter Photo)

John C. Lever, well known Andover banker for over a half century will retire from active service as a bank officer on May 1st. Mr. Lever entered banking on December 7, 1906 with the former Burrows National Bank at the time when Waldo Miller was President and Frank W. Burrows was cashier. In 1909 he was named as assistant cashier and a member of the Board of Directors. From 1915 until 1925, Mr . Lever operated his father's livery business and although he did not continue as an active bank officer he retained his membership on the Board of Directors of the Burrows Bank. He was again appointed assistant cashier of the Burrows Bank in 1925. At that time, Jesse S. Phillips was president and John E. Cannon was cashier.

In December 1933 the Burrows National Bank consolidated with the Andover State Bank forming the Andover National Bank. Mr. Lever was named assistant cashier and Andrew D. Fuller president. A few years later Mr. Lever was appointed cashier of the bank. On January 31, 1956 the Andover National Bank of Andover and the Citizens National Bank of Wellsville consolidated. Mr. Lever was named assistant cashier of the combined banks and also a member of the Advisory Board for the Andover Office.

Mr. Lever has served the Andover area ably and well both as a friend and as a banker for over fifty years, forty-eight years as a bank officer and director. Of more recent date, he was chairman of the Board of Directors of the Andover National Bank and currently is Chairman of the Andover Advisory Board of the Citizens National Bank.

Mr. Lever has been an Andover community and buisness leader, serving as treasurer of many organizations. At present he is a trustee and treasurer of the Andover Free Library, a member of the Andover Baptist Church a member of the Andover Masonic Lodge of which he is a Past Master, a member of the Allegany County Bankers Association of which he is a past president, and the Wellsville Moose Club.

As an expression of their esteem, Mr. Lever's assosiates in the Citizens National Bank on Wednesday night gave a dinner and party in his honor at the Scio Rod & Gun Club.

A. D. Fuller, formerly president of Andover National Bank and now a Vice President and Director of the Citizens National Bank commented, "In John's retirement I feel a great personal loss after having been so closely associated with him in business and banking for so many years."

Mrs. Ralph Rogers Dies Unexpectedly

Mrs. Ralph Rogers died Suddenly at her home on Dyke Street at 5:45 Thursday afternoon, April 4, 1957.

Mrs. Adah Bell Rogers was born Aug. 15, 1896, in Wilson, N. Y., daughter of Thomas R. and Ella Brown Bassett, but lived in Andover until 1916, when she was united in marriage with Ralph V. Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers resided in Hornell, Buffalo, New York City and Cleveland, Ohio, before returning to Andover to make their home seven years ago.

Surviving are her husband, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Huff of Buffalo and two brothers, Earl C. Bassett of Lockport, N. Y., and John Chandler Bassett of Buffalo.

Mrs. Rogers was a member of the King's Daughters of the Andover Presbyterian Church.

Services were held at the home on Dyke Street at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Albert N. Rogers of Alfred officiating with interment in Hillside Cemetery, Andover.

Andover Postal Service Hit By Summerfield

The new order issued as an economy measure by Postmaster General Summerfield will effect the Andover Post Office as follows:

Post Office windows will be closed and no rural delivery will be made on Saturdays until further notice.

First Class mail and newspapers will be distributed. The rest of the mail will accumulate and be delivered as can be handled within the next five days.

Window service beginning Monday, April 15 will be from 8:30 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.

No Money Orders will be issued after April 29th.

Rev. Shea To Be Honored At Tea

Rev. John R. Shea will be honored guest this Sunday afternoon, April 14, at a tea given by the Blessed Sacrament Parish at the Club House from 2 to 4 in honor of the 33rd anniversary of Father Shea's ordination to the Priesthood.

The public is cordially invited.

P. T. A. News

The P. T. A. will meet next Wednesday evening, April 17th with open house from 7 until 8. Following the business meeting Mr. Gibbs and Dr. Paul will explain the school guidance program.

After the program the teachers will again be in their homerooms so that parents who were unable to come earlier may contact them after the program.

Information Wanted

Anyone having any family records or other information concerning Robert R. Boyd or his wife Eunice N. Boyd are requested to send same to Kenneth N. Boyd, 390 N. Stout Ave., Blackfoot, Idaho, or to the Andover News Office.

Mr. Boyd was born June 25, 1771 in Orange County, N. Y., but resided in Andover some time. He died August 2, 1855 and was buried in the Boyd Cemetery

Home Demonstration

Allegany 4-H Club members of all ages will be demonstrating at the 4-H Club Special Foods Demonstration Day, Saturday, April 13 at Belfast Central School Homemaking Room. Judging will start at 9:30 A. M. The girls will be giving demonstrations on the preparation of dairy products, poultry foods, vegetables and bread.

Mrs. Earl Jennings, local leader from Richburg, will be chairman for the day. Judges for the event are Mrs. John Marvin, homemaker, Fillmore; and Mrs. Alice Evans Program Assistant in Allegany County.

4-H Club girls 14 years of age or over and who receive a blue award will represent Allegany County in the sub-district demonstration day to be held in Warsaw on May 11.

Sixteen members of the Andover Unit enjoyed a very successful lesson on "Deep Fat Frying" given by Miss Ruth Taylor and Mrs. Augusta Baker at the Grange Hall Wednesday.

Scout News

For particulars contact Scout Master Douglas Whiting or N. A. Nelson.

Local Church To Hold Good Friday Service

The four Protestant Churches of Andover will conduct a Three Hour Service of Devotion on Good Friday, April 19th, at the Presbyterian Church, beginning at 12 o'clock. The Service will center in The Seven Last Words of Jesus, and the following is the schedule:

12:00 to 12:24—First Word: Father, Forgive, Dr. Alfred J. Gross.

12:26 to 12:50—Second Word: with Men Paradise, Rev. Richard W. Pendell.

12:52 to 1:16—Third Word: Woman, behold Thy Son, Rev. Fred W. Church.

1:18 to 1:42—Fourth Word: My God, My God, Rev. Albert N. Rogers.

1:44 to 2.08—Fifth Word: I Thirst, Rev. Homer Evans.

2:10 to 2.34—Sixth Word: It Is Finished, Rev. William M. Ashley.

2:36 to 3:00—Seventh Word: Into Thy Hands, Rev. Fred W. Church.

Printed programs will be provided, familiar hymns appropriate to the day will be sung, and there will be special music.

While it will be profitable for people to attend the full service, any who cannot do so are urged to attend such portions as they may elect. The two minute intermissions between the sections will provide a time for coming and going.
