LIVING UNDER LAW

YOUR LEGAL NAME

Most probably you are never quite sure whether your wife should use your first name, or her own, when signing an important paper. Perhaps you also wonder whether to put a "Mr." or a "Mrs." in front of a signature; and you can get all mixed up about a "Jr." or a "Sr." after it. Then, what about your middle name or initial?

It seems that for centuries under common law a legal name has consisted of one Christian or given name and one surname or family name. The law presumes that every person has a given name and a surname which must be stated in full on any legal document.

The laws pays little attention to a middle name or initial, but it is wise to use either one or the other for exact identification. You must be consistent, too. For example, one real estate buyer was advised to sign all papers by his full name "William Alton Smith, Jr." to make it clear which of the Bill Smiths was buying the property.

If you are a "Jr." or a "Sr." such description should be used to help distinguish you from namesakes.

As for "Mr." in front of your name, that's not important at all. The same is true for "Mrs.", because it's your wife's own given name that counts.

When a woman marries, she takes her husband's family name. Her maiden surname is absolutely lost. Many women incorrectly use their husband's full name, and sign "Mrs. William A. Smith", for example. The correct way is for her to sign her own given name and her husband's surname, such as "Joan Marie Smith."

A divorced woman who wants to resume the use of her maiden name may, under some circumstances, have it returned to her by court order.
