G. James Merry Named To Canisteo Bank Staff

W. L. Collins, President of First State Bank of Canisteo has announced that G. James Merry of Greenwood will become a member of the bank's force on February 7th.

Mr. Merry is a graduate of Columbia High School of East Greenbush and a graduate of Cornell University with a B. S. degree in agriculture. He has served as manager of stores for Agway Co-op in Greenwood and Wellsville.

With his background in farming and as manager of stores for Agway, together with a degree in agriculture and with the banking schools and seminars which he plans to attend, the bank will be able to provide an even better service to its customers.

Mr. Merry is married to the former Eileen Sewell. They have one son, and although natives of the capitol district, they desire to live on the Southern Tier and make their home in Greenwood. Both Mr. and Mrs. Merry are members of St. Mary's Church in Rexville.
