Grace Young, Reporter

Greenwood Chapter Order of Eastern Stars had a special ceremony at the regular meeting Monday night to honor Fifty-year Members. The Chapter was organized July 28, 1915 with eleven Charter Members. The late Maude Kellogg was the first Matron and her brother, John Williamson the first Patron. Three Fifty-year pins were presented to Mrs. Lana Rogers, Mrs. Mary Robbins and Mrs. Mary Streeter. Mrs. Streeter was unable to be present and her pin was delivered by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marion Streeter. The Chapter also honored Mrs. Maryella Crain with a 45-year membership pin. Mrs. Etta Wright, Matron in 1965, made an afghan which she gave the Chapter. Sharon Bertch, Greenwood R. D. received the afghan. The meeting was in charge of Matron, Marian Dixon. The refreshment table was centered with a large heart shaped cake with 50 written on it, made by Mrs. Wright.

Tuesday night OES members, Marian Dixon, Janet Jackson, Evelyn Hoagland and Penny Bangs attended Visitation at the Canisteo Chapter.

The late Mrs. Rose Baker and staff of Canisteo, then OES District Deputy, was responsible for organizing the local Chapter.

Troop 62 in Greenwood sponsored the Annual Scout Banquet at Greenwood Central School Wednesday night. About 75 Cubs, Scouts, their parents and friends attended the dinner planned and served by Mrs. Mary Mullen, Mrs. Virginia Hunt, Mrs. Elaine Allen, Miss Donna Mullen and Mrs. Doris Cheesman. Master of Ceremonies for the program was Jay Bangs. John Hunt, Cubmaster and Edward Mullen, Scoutmaster presented membership cards to the boys. George Fisher, member of the Executive Board of Steuben Area Scout Council, presented the new Cub Charter to Fred Kirk, Institutional Representative from the sponsor, the Greenwood Volunteer Firemen and New Scout Charter to Jay Bangs, Institutional Representative for the sponsor, the Methodist Church. A local award, the Scouter of Honor was presented to Mrs. Eleanor Kernan and accepted by her son, Sheldon. George Dennis, Scout Executive of Steuben Area Council from Bath was guest speaker. He stressed the wise use of time. Scouting teaches a boy to be self reliant. Gordon Burns, Regional Deputy Executive, visiting the Steuben Council, was introduced. He too grew up in a small community and was a Scout. He said at that time each Troop was quite isolated and did not have organization help that present day Councils give. Principal Robert Hoagland gave the Invocation and Benediction. The Scouts have a window display at the Chaffee's Hardware.
