Greenwood Central School News

Greenwood Central School has announced that Patricia Hanbach has been selected to receive the 1966 DAR award. This is presented to a member of the senior class nominated by their classmates and teachers, who has exhibited outstanding qualities in the areas of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

While Patricia has been in high school, she has served as class president, secretary and treasurer, and has been active in the band, choir and yearbook. She has been editor of the yearbook for 1965-66.

She is an active member of the FHA group and has not only been a local officer but has been active in the district and state level.

She is a member of the Student Council and National Honor Society, and also a member of the cheer-leading squad. She attended the Citizenship Conference at Syracuse in the 11th and 12th grade and received certificate of commendation for her outstanding work.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanbach, E. D. 1, Rexville, New York.
