

Photo by Wittie

Miss Deanne Wittie and Ronald Kniffin Married

The Andover Presbyterian Church was the scene of a candlelight wedding that united in marriage Miss Deanne Kay Wittie and Ronald Kniffin on Friday evening, March 4, 1966 at eight o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wittie, Main St., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kniffin of Greece.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Willis V. Poole, Pastor, before the altar decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and white carnations and flanked by several branches of candleabra. Traditional wedding music was rendered by Mr. Douglas York, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of cream satin brocaded in gold and featured a floor length redingote styled with a basque back from which a panel, held by six buttons, draped to the floor, featuring long lantern sleeves. The close fitting garment was held by an oval gold and pearl brooch.

A string of pearls was intertwined in her coiffure. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, lilies of the valley and red roses. In keeping with tradition, the bride removed from her bouquet a rosebud, which was ceremoniously pinned upon the groom's tuxedo lapel.

Miss Jeanne Campbell was maid-of-honor. Her floor length gown was of emerald green velvet empire styled with scoop neckline and short sleeves. Golden eight button gloves and slippers completed her ensemble. She wore a fine gold necklace with an oval pendant, a gift from the bride, and a string of crystals in her hair. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations tipped with gold.

Wray Kniffin of Greece, served as best man for his brother. The ushers were John Keenan of Rochester and Donald Raines of Cleveland, Ohio.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue and gold brocade dress with matching coat, blue mantilla veil, coordinated accessories and slippers and wore a corsage of blue carnations. The groom's mother chose a street length dress of light blue with a matching pillbox hat and black accessories and wore a corsage of blue carnations.

Mrs. Clarence Wittie of E. Greenwood St., paternal grandmother of the bride wore a light grey dress and Mrs. Geer of Caledonia, maternal grandmother of the groom wore a dark blue suit. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception for about 75 guests was held at the Moose Club in Wellsville.

The buffet table was decorated

McAndrews Becomes Aironics Chief

F. Corwin McAndrews, former Vice President of General Precision, has been named President of Aironics, Inc. The firm which specializes in the development and fabrication of electronic systems, will move its manufacturing operations next week from Bethesda to a new plant at the Industrial Complex at Dulles Air Port, Washington, D. C.

Mr. McAndrews has served previously as an Engineer Specialist in the Department of Defence and as deputy director of Sinclair's Research Laboratories.

Mr. McAndrews is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrew, Sr.

WSCS Notice

The regular meeting of the WSCS will be held Tuesday evening, March 15th at 7:30 in the Methodist Church. Committee in charge is: Jeanette Horan, chairman, Helen Miles, Juanita Barnes, Mima Wentworth and Shirley Tomm.

Commercial Printing at the News Printing House with baskets of white mums and a four tiered wedding cake topped with a white arch and two white bells flanked by white lighted tapers.

Miss Christine Brigham of Alfred cut the cake. Miss Anne Albright of Brockport and Miss Bonnie Moline were the co-hostesses. Guests attended from Cleveland, Ohio, Rochester, Greece, Caledonia, Brockport, Alfred, Wellsville and Andover.

For her short wedding trip, the bride chose a wool sheath of light brown with antique lace flounce sleeves and beige accessories.

The couple will reside in Rochester where the groom is self employed.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and is attending the University of Rochester. The groom is an alumnus of Rochester Institute of Technology.

Pre-nuptial events included a shower given by Miss Anne Albright as hostess in Rochester and a variety shower by Miss Jeanne Campbell.

Miss Yannie Named To Dean's List

Miss Narita M. Yannie, a junior at Nazareth College of Rochester, has been named to the dean's list for the 1st semester of the 1965-66 year. She is majoring in English.

Miss Yannie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Yannie, Jr., of 303 Maple Hts., Bath and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Yannie of Andover.

Use the Classified Ad Section

Annual Meeting Of Hillside Cemetery Association

The Annual Meeting of the Hillside Cemetery Association will be held at the Andover Village Office, Friday evening, March 18, 1966, at 8:00 P. M.

All lot owners of the Hillside Cemetery are requested to be present as there is important business to be transacted.

CHARLES RUGER, Sec'y.

REMEMBER OUR Gift Departments FOR ALL YOUR Gift Occasions

New Selections of — TIMEX WATCHES For Both Men and Women

The Newest Idea in — CLOCKS

Magic Touch Alarms — by Westclox TAYLOR BAROMETERS

General Electric — IRONS, TOASTERS

MIXERS, COFFEEMATICS Newest of EASTMAN INSTAMATIC

CAMERAS — MOVIE CAMERAS and PROJECTORS

MANY OTHER NEW GIFT SUGGESTIONS

VAR'S PHARMACY

24 Hour Prescription Service

Andover, New York

Dial 478-5601

Want to Attract Money?

When the Pied Piper raised his horn, no one could resist his call. Well, your money can attract more money without magic. Just start a regular savings plan at The Citizens National Bank. As that wonderful cash reserve builds up, it earns interest and then the increased amount earns more interest and on and on. Start now! Open your Citizens National Bank savings account this payday and watch those dollars come to you.

4%

INTEREST PER YEAR ON REGULAR SAVINGS

THE CITIZENS

OF WELLSVILLE, N. Y.

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM — FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION