

C. Mat Burrous

Elected To Directorship Of Citizens Nat. Bank

C. Mat Burrous, a prominent area businessman was elected to Directorship of The Citizens National Bank of Wellsville at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors on March 17, 1966.

Mr. Burrous is the president and treasurer of the Burrous Furniture, Inc., of Wellsville which was formerly operated as Gibson Furniture Company. He has been in the furniture business in the area for the past thirty years, a native of Potter County, Pennsylvania, and has had vast experience in the field of commercial banking. He began his banking as an employee of The First National Bank of Genesee, Pennsylvania in June of 1928, and served as Cashier of that bank until January of 1935. He was also a former member of the Board of Directors of that bank.

Mr. Burrous and his wife, Beryl expect to make their home in Wellsville in the near future. They have three children, Richard Burrous of Wellsville who is the Vice-President and Secretary of the Burrous Furniture, Inc.; Mrs. David (Wanda) Trumbull of Saratoga, California; and Mrs. Frank (Barbara) Smith of Westfield, New Jersey. In making the announcement Mr. Harold L. Bloss President of The Citizens National Bank stated that it has been the policy of the bank to select directors, who are well qualified, and have a keen interest in the bank and the economic development of the area. He expressed appreciation to Mr. Burrous for his acceptance to this position.

The Citizens National Bank of Wellsville has office locations in Wellsville, Andover, Alfred, Whitesville and Bolivar.

Greenwood Central School News

The Masonic Lodge of Greenwood, N. Y. is planning to sponsor a sport's banquet in honor of the basketball teams on Saturday night, March 26, at 7:30 p. m.

This banquet is being planned in recognition of the outstanding season the boys have had this year. After winning the Steuben County Championship to enter the Greenwood Junior Varsity Basketball team has some undefeated and the Varsity is third in the County and went far in the sectional than any team since 1949.

The main speaker for the event will be Richard Willover, Supervising Principal at the local Central School. Mr. Willover was coach at Greenwood at the time they went to the final in Rochester in 1949. He and his family is well acquainted in the area.

Reservation forms have been distributed to the various families in the school district and anyone who has not received a reservation form may reserve a place at the banquet by calling Greenwood 61.

Jeanne Tolhurst and Jerry Burley, Juniors, will represent Greenwood Central School in the Steuben County Schoolmaster's Speaking Contest at Greenwood, March 21.

The two students were chosen in a local contest last Monday under the direction of James DeMarte, English teacher. Miss Tolhurst's speech was entitled — "School: A Preparation For Life" and Burley's, "Crime is Winning On The Homefront".

The two alternates are Patricia Hambach, Senior and Keith Brewster, Freshman.

The judges for the contest were Mrs. Francis Latham, Canisteo, Mrs. Charity McCormick, Andover R.D. 2, and Mrs. Marian Balschmitter, Greenwood.
