Junior Play News

The Juniors are in the final stages of rehearsing their annual play, a three act comedy, "Ask Any Girl" by Winifred Wolfe. David Niven and Shirley MacLaine had the starring roles of the movie version.

"Meg" Wheeler (Kathy Joyce) felt stilted and unable to express herself and besides she'd never find a husband in her small home town. She browbeats her parents into allowing her to leave for New York City where she intends on enlarging her horizon. She moves into a girls' boarding house in Manhattan that is filled with attractive girls, most of them just as eager as "Meg" to find that ideal man.

"Meg" is soon involved in an advertising firm where she enlists the aid of a stiff necked, all-business head of the firm, Miles Doughton (David Peckham). With a typical girl's reaction, "Meg" becomes fascinated by Evan Doughton (Dale Angood), Miles' younger brother.

Seeing how "Meg" feels and being a little fed up with his brother's lazy never get to work on time attitude, Miles decides to give her a hand in snaring Evan into marriage. Together "Meg" and Miles, using the latest advertising techniques, set out to trap the girl chasing Evan into matrimony.

The humorous results, as they apply D motivation research, build to a delightful climax in which we discover, that in the course of landing Evan, "Meg" and Miles become aware of each others fine qualities.

Members of the supporting cast are: Connie Lewis, Camilla Wallace, Jeffrey Tuttle, Robert Baker, Howard Haan, Marianne Meyn, Marguerite Rick, Anne Nye, Rita Dixon, Denise Collins, Gail Bronson, Linda Middaugh, Nora Halsey, Duania Gear, Cheryl Steadman, Rebecca Kelley, Mary DeRemer and Richard Lang.

Tickets are on sale now for "Ask Any Girl", Friday evening, April 1, at 8:00 o'clock in the ACS auditorium. This comedy is directed by Mrs. Kessler and produced by special arrangement with the Dramatic Publishing Company of Chicago, Illinois.

ARE YOU A TRUE FRIEND?

Naturally everyone considers herself or himself a true friend to someone. There are some important things that go into the making of a good friendship.

You've heard the old saying "a friend in need is a friend indeed". Do you prove yourself reliable when your friends are in need? Will they be able to look back many years from now and remember the many nice things you did for them?

Are you sincere? Sounds like a song doesn't it. Are you sincere in your feeling for your friend? It's terrible to let someone think you are their friend and have them find out differently later.

Do you understand your friend and viceversa? Do you try to understand his problems and try to help solve them?

These qualities all go into the making of a friend. Nothing satisfies a person more than the knowledge that he is loved and understood by a friend. Are you a true friend?
