The Officers all wore red rose corsages and white nylon wristlets, the latter being a gift from the Worthy Matron.

Mrs. Elsie Kent was the soloist for the evening.

Greetings from the Most Worthy Grand Matron and Most Worthy Grand Patron were given by the District Grand Officers and all other Grand Officers spoke briefly upon the work of the Order. All Grand Officers congratulated Anna W. McArthur Chapter on the fine way that they exemplified their work.

The Officers taking part in the presentation were asked to retire and the Worthy Matron escorted R. W. Edna Carter to the Altar. The Officers re-entered the room to the music of "For Me And My Gal", each carrying a silver bell with a red letter on it. Other members in the room rang bells and Elsie Kent sang the song with appropriate verses to honor the Deputy and Verses were read by the Officers and as they recited they each hung their bell on a silver ribbon, which when completed spelled the word Memories. The W. Matron then presented Sister Edna with a large bell and gift from the Chapter.

Sister Bessie Mulconery then entered the room, pulling a toy locomotive engine, to the tune of "Working on the Railroad". The Worthy Patron, Clyde Yorton, escorted Brother Roland Dunn to the Altar and Sister Bessie read a verse and presented him his gift from the Chapter, which was placed on a small train and track. Both Officers graciously thanked the Chapter for their gifts.

After the meeting delicious refreshments were served in the dining room. The M. W. Grand Matron's colors were carried out and each table was centered with a red rose centerpiece, red candles and the favors were red mint cups placed on a silver bell.

The following committee was in charge of the kitchen: Irma Lewis, Helen Boyd, Hazel Barlow. The dining room was in charge of Cecile Ruger.
