

GREENWOOD NEWS

Green Young, Reporter

Dr. Gilbert Wieting, District Superintendent of Olean Methodist Churches conducted the Quarterly Conference at the Greenwood Church Thursday night. Reports were given by WSCS President, Janet Jackson; Church School Superintendent, Harriet Redmond; MYF Leader, Geraldine Laughier; Trustees, Clinton York, also Finance Chairman; Membership Chairman, Grace Young; Financial Treasurer, Marjorie Matthews, and the Pastor, The Rev. Roger Williams. The Nominating Committee re-elected for next year was Freda Stephens, Virgil Streetor and Lunette Hale. Trustees Clarence Stephens and Charles Smith were re-elected for three years. Five non-resident members were voted dropped from the Roll. Clinton York was approved for Church School Superintendent. Lay Speakers, Virgil Hussey and Robert Hoagland were approved. The Rev. Roger Williams presented the two Lay Speakers with Recognition Cards at the Sunday Morning Service.

The Annual Meeting of the Greenwood Cemetery Association was held at the Masonic Hall Tuesday in charge of President, Lloyd Chaffee. Officers were re-elected as follows: President, Lloyd Chaffee; Vice-President, Carroll Wallace; Secretary - Treasurer, Grace Young and Trustees for three years, Merrill Holt and Hayden Cook. Lynn Vanderhoef will be Caretaker.

The Senior Class of Greenwood Central School left early Monday morning for a trip to Washington, D. C. Three days and nights will be spent in Washington with rooming accommodations at the Arva Motel at Arlington, Va. Thursday they journey to the Laxey Gardens at Luray, Va., where they will spend the night at the Gaverns Motel. They will return home Friday evening.

They visited the Gettysburg Battlefield enroute. While in Washington they plan to visit the Capitol Building, White House, Smithsonian Institute, FBI Building, Library of Congress, Washington Monument, a boatride on the Potomac River, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, viewing the changing of the guard and other sites of interest. A Major League Ball Game is on the schedule. Class members taking the trip are: Carolyn Bassett, Ruth Burdick, Sandra Greene, Patricia Hanbach, Anna Marie Murray, Debra Teribury, Audrey Woodworth, Michael Cheesman, Dean Holt, Larry Lewis, Ronald Meehan, David Tracy, Ben Smith, Larry Wallace, Steve Williamson, Larry and Jerel Woodworth. They were accompanied by Raymond Duke, Class Advisor, Sheldon Atherton, Voc.-Ag., Teacher and Mrs. Atherton. Glenn Stephens was the bus driver.

Greenwood Central School is not in session this week, May 2 - 6 for the Annual Spring Vacation. Classes will resume May 9th.

A date to remember is May 14 when the Spring Carnival will be held for the Scholarship Fund at the School Grounds. The Scholarship Committee sponsors this Community project. A water fight at 6:00 o'clock between Greenwood and neighboring firemen. A Tug of War at 7:30 between Greenwood and Rexville - West Union team, ten men on each team. Emmett McNeill and Bryan Higgins, Captains in charge. Free fireworks display at 9:15. About 18 booths will be sponsored by school and church groups. Dancing for those interested on the Tennis Court. In case of cool or wet weather, events will be inside.

Mrs. Francis Latham of Canisteo substituted in the Seventh Grade at G. C. S., last week for Mrs. Fehl, who was in the hospital.

The April issue of the Fulcrum was distributed Friday at G. C. S. and by mail to adults in town not reached by school.

Miss Donna Krusen spent a recent weekend break from the State University College at Buffalo with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Krusen. She brought a guest, Maria Starkel, an exchange student from Poland, who is attending Buffalo State. They visited a maple sugar bush to watch syrup made. This was very exciting for her and she thought the syrup was delicious. She will take some to her family in Poland when she returns home in August. She said they have maple trees in Poland, but had never heard of maple syrup.

The ice storm Wednesday night hit all the hills around Greenwood. Electricity was off at the South end of Town from Christian Hollow bridge to Rexville, also the County Road to West Union, Andover Hill and Jasper Hill. Many telephone lines were down. The TV Cable was also affected from 3:30 to 6:30 Thursday.

Freeman Rogers of West Greenwood, entered the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, with pneumonia last Monday.

The Spring Concert at Greenwood Central School was in two parts, Chorus and Band. The Girls Chorus opened the program with an Armenian Folk Song, "Gentle Wind". The Junior High Treble Trio sang, "Yesterday". Numbers by the chorus were: "He's Gone Away", by W. Schuman; "We Talked As Girls Do", Dickinson-Smith; "One Hand, One Heart", Leonard Bernstein; "Mood Indigo", Ellington-Smith; "There is a Balm in Gilead", Dawson; "This Nearly Was Mine", Hammerstein-Rodgers. Trio Mary E. Hanbach, Diane Smith and Kathy Koehler. "Song of a Forest Bird", Hanley-Sorrentino. Trio, Mary Sky, Joan Spencer, Diane Smith. From Mary Poppins, Sherman-Leaman, "The Perfect Nanny" and "Feed the Birds", Senior High Treble Choir. From Damn Yankees, "You Gotta Have Heart", Dick Hawkins, Don Polhurst, Don Sky, Jerry Burley and Kevin O'Brien.

The Band played "Balton Overture", "Evening Star" with solo parts by Roger York - Trumpet Glenna McCaffery - Flute; Two trumpet "Tunes and Ayre"; "Tango Triste, Serenade for Trumpet" with solo part Kathy Krusen - Cornet. "Tropical Twilight", Maleguena. Sandra Greene played Baritone solo, "War Song" with variations by Rogers, accompanist Mrs. June Rollins. The final number, "Gaslight Galettes" with Majorettes, directed by Connie Murphy. Mrs. J. Eike, music teacher, was director.

Mrs. L. T. Hardenbergh and

Mrs. Franklyn Krusen assisted in serving juice at the Canisteo Blood Bank held at Somers Hall Friday afternoon. There were 15 donors from Greenwood including for the first time Mrs. Joanne Holt, Mrs. Louise Smith from the Village and Mrs. Doris VanFleet and Mrs. Patricia Wood, RFD.

The April meeting of Greenwood Grange was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Merry Saturday evening, April 23rd, with Master, Mrs. Louise Smith presiding.

$5 fourth prize with a skit with her dog "Bozo".

Mrs. Lillian Gratto of Lancaster spent last week-end in Hornell with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith and family. Mrs. Gratto called on friends in town Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hussey of North Chili spent the week-end at their home in town.

IT TAKES 2... TO LICK CANCER... YOU AND YOUR DOCTOR For FREE booklet write: AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY 1010 James St., Syracuse, N.Y. 13203

It's Planting Time! Fresh Nursery Stock Now Ready For You In Dansville New York State's Most Complete Selection KELLY HIGH QUALITY AT LOW PRICES SPECIAL THIS WEEK HOPA FLOWERING CRAB 5 - 6 ft. TREES REG. $3.25 each; 2 for $5.95 THIS WEEK $2.50 each; 2 for $4.75 Open Evenings Until 9:00 P. M. TO MAKE YOUR HOME More BEAUTIFUL, More FRUITFUL Trees, Shrubs, Evergreens, Roses, Perennials, Fruit, etc. Open Every Day FREE PONY and CHAIR PLANE RIDES SAT. & SUN. Kelly Bros. Nurseries Ph: Area Code 716-987-2211 Dansville, N. Y. Maple Street - Near The Airport - Easy To Reach

How could there be a more appropriate gift? MOTHER'S BIRTHDAY... She'll cherish the Mother's Ring forever because she'll know you could give her nothing more individual, more personal, more significant. A. McHENRY & CO. 106 Main Street HORNELL, N. Y. Quality Jewelers FOR OVER 112 YEARS

Need More Room? As your family grows larger, living space seems to shrink. If you need more room, you can 'add on' or convert unused space with the help of a home improvement loan from The Citizens National Bank. Whether you plan to use a contractor - or want to 'do it yourself' - estimate the costs then let us know how we can help. THE CITIZENS OF WELLSVILLE, N. Y. MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM - FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION