

SOCIAL NOTES

Miss Lee Kessler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kessler, a sophomore at Grove City College, Grove City, Pa., played the part of Helena in Theta Alpha Phi play, "Midsummer Night's Dream" by William Shakespeare, held in Crawford Auditorium last Friday and Saturday nights.

Robert Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lynch, became the proud owner last week of a registered Quarter Mare, "Gallant Joy".

David Keith Meacham of Alfred Station, has been accepted as a member of the freshman class to be enrolled at Alfred University next September. Meacham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reynard Keith Meacham of R.D. 1, Alfred Station. He plans to enter the College of Liberal Arts at Alfred University. A senior at Andover Central School, Meacham is active in varsity baseball, band and chorus. He is also a member of Boy Scout, National Rifle Association, Youth Fellowship and Ellington Trail Riders.

James B. Marsh, Wellsville High School summer school principal has announced tentative plans of the summer school program for 1966. Instruction will begin July 5 and terminate Aug. 15. Regents and local final examinations will be given Aug. 16 and 17. Registration dates have been set for Monday and Tuesday, June 27 and 28, in the Wellsville High School Cafeteria. All students must register in person and have a permission form from their home school signed by the principal.

Ted Crowell, Wellsville Red Cross blood chairman, issued the appeal for 10 donors of A-negative type of blood, needed for a heart-lung operation and asked that the donors appear at the Bloodmobile visit here Friday. He asked that persons having A-negative blood to contact the Red Cross office (telephone 593-1531) for special instructions about donating Friday at the Bloodmobile visit.

Tuesday morning five Wellsville fire companies were called out at 2:58 a. m., to the residence of Richard Graves, Dyke St., when fire broke out as the result of clothes hanging too close to a hot water heater. The one-family dwelling is occupied by Mabel Callaghan and Rose Burrows. Wellsville fire chief Robert Prescott reported that extensive fire and water damage to the entire house resulted. More than 100 firemen from Wellsville's five companies fought the blaze and were at the scene until 7:30 a. m. The Scio Fire Department answered a standby call. Mrs. Callaghan and Mrs. Burrows are frequent visitors of friends and relatives in Andover.

Plans for the Allegany County Fair, and an antique show are in the making. It was announced that television and recording star Molly Bee will be the featured attraction of the 1966 fair and will present a performance August 12. The annual antique show will be at the fairgrounds May 21 and 22. The event will be in charge of E. M. Myers of Alfred and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Casterline of Belmont will act as advisors. Exhibits will feature dishes, silverware, vases, guns and furniture. It will be a dealers' show and safe and dinners will be served by the Allegany County Pomona Grange. Proceeds will go to the Agricultural Society.
