was wrong when we didn't see the driver climb out of the car immediately but he was emerging from the window by the time that we got there — apparently unhurt. He told us that he kind of had to figure out how he was going to release his seat belt and still not come crashing down on his head since his car was upside down — he made it O.K.

After the 2nd re-start, Chuck Wright with his classy looking No. 66, took over the lead and looked as if he had the race all sewed up and in the bag—until his left front wheel locked up coming out of the No. 4 turn which sent him part way up on the bank in front of the spectators. However, with this jar and extra strain he was able to get straightened out — only to have it freeze again coming out of the No. 2 turn and pulled him into the infield and out of the race. From then on it was a see-saw battle with several different drivers taking the lead for a few laps until Butch Harris, No. 500, managed to get out in the lead in the last few laps of the race and was able to stave off Phil Pipe's No. 71, efforts to pass.

In the Modern Feature, the track was a little slippery at the start of the race so that 3 cars spun into each other in the No. 2 turn making it necessary to have a re-start the lead changed hands several times with a driver managing to hold the lead for several laps until he spun out or was bumped and then spun out. Finally, after the track was really dried out, Leo Houghtaling, No. 42, managed to take over the lead and was able to pick up the checkered flag for his first Feature win at this track.

For a re-cap of the racing results: In the Sportsman Class — Joe White, No. 40, took the 1st heat; Bill Deming, No. 9, the 2nd; Wesley Rogers, No. V05, the 3rd.

and Dick Bunn, No. 69, the "Consy". In the Feature—Butch Harris, No. 500, came in 1st; Phil Pipe, No. 71, 2nd; Larry Scouten, No. 13, 3rd; Dick Bunn, No. 69, 4th; and Wesley Rogers, No. V05, 5th.

In the Modern Class — Leo Houghtaling, No. 42, took the 1st heat; Bob Gee, No. 260, took the 2nd; and Floyd Green, No. 7, won the "Consy". In the Feature — Leo Houghtaling, No. 42, was 1st; Floyd Greene, No. 7, 2nd; Chuck Smith, No. 202, 3rd; Ray Poyer, No. 1M, 4th; and Robert Ackley, No. 92, 5th.

The Racing Program was rounded out with a Powder-Puff Derby which acted as an anti-climax after all the action in the previous races with the "Gals" managing to get through the whole race with out an accident. Betty Young, driving Basil Shutts No. 13, got out to an early lead and picked up the checkered flag without any serious threats in the race.
