

Mr. and Mrs. James Lynn Cannon

Miss Linda Lee Walter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Walter of Andover, R.D. 1, became the bride of James Lynn Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cannon, 37 Water St., Saturday morning, June 18, 1966, at 11:30 a. m., in the Andover Blessed Sacrament Church.

Vases of purple iris and red peonies decorated the altar for the double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. John R. Shea, pastor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a street length gown of Croilan, styled with a brocade bodice and matching jacket. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

Miss Joyce Austin of Alfred Station was maid-of-honor. Her gown was blue threaded with silver and featured side pleats of satin. Her bouquet was pink carnations.

Robert Joyce, Andover, was the best man.

The mother of the bride chose a two-piece suit of pink and white striped blended cotton. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink knit dress accompanied by a jacket. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at Costo Inn in Almond for thirty-five guests.

Following a wedding trip into Canada, the bride will be at home. Mr. Cannon is with the United States Navy, having finished his boot training and will be stationed at Midway Island, leaving for California this week.

The bride is a graduate of Alfred-Almond Central School and Olean Business Institute and is employed at Alfred Ceramic School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Andover Central School Class of 1965.
