Former Andover Man Receives Appointment

R. Theodore Smith, formerly of Andover, has received an appointment to the Taxation and Finance Committee of the National Association of Counties. The appointment was made recently by W. W. Dumas, President of NACO.

As a new member of the Committee, Mr. Smith was requested to attend the Association's 31st annual County Regional Problems Congress to be held in New Orleans, La., July 17 - 20. At that time, the Taxation and Finance Committee will consider the question: "Financing Creative Federalism—Where Does the Local Share of the Money Come From?"

Smith, a Jamestown representative on the Chautauqua County Board of Supervisors, is also an Assistant Professor at Jamestown Community College. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Smith reside at 37 Elm Street in Andover.

Appreciation

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all relatives, friends and neighbors for the cards, flowers, visitations and all other acts of kindness given me while I was in the hospital.
